ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Statistical Abstract of the United States has been published annually for the past 65 years, and its present content and form are the result of the work of many persons during that period. Revisions are made each year to adapt it to meet current needs and uses, and to bring the various statistical series up to date. The present volume has been prepared under the supervision of the Statistical Assistant to the Director by Morris B. Ullman, Statistician, and Kathleen H. Dugan, Editor.

The cooperation of many persons, acting in either their official positions or as individuals, who contributed to the preparation of this volume, is gratefully acknowledged. Particularly to be mentioned are the members of the Committee on the Statistical Abstract of the Bureau who have advised on content and policy in the revision of the volume. Members of this committee include:

Philip M. Hauser, Assistant Director (Chairman).

Maxwell R. Conklin, Chief, Industry Division.

Edward R. Gray, Chief, Governments Division.

Morris H. Hansen, Statistical Assistant to the Director.

Zellmer R. Pettet, Chief, Agriculture Division.

Leon E. Truesdell, Chief, Population Division.

Amand W. von Struve, Acting Chief, Information & Publications Division.

The following agencies furnished information in advance of publication or prepared special tables for inclusion in the Abstract:

Treasury Department—Bureau of Customs.

Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Department of Justice—Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Bureau of Prisons.

Department of the Interior—General Land Office.

INTRODUCTION

Use of the Statistical Abstract.—The Statistical Abstract of the United States summarizes the large mass of statistical information published by various governmental agencies and certain nongovernmental organizations, and also includes some information not published elsewhere. Important data on the industrial, social, and economic organization of the Nation are brought together in one volume to serve as a convenient reference manual.

The Statistical Abstract not only provides a summary of statistical information but it also serves as a guide to various sources of statistical data. To this end every table in the Abstract is annotated as to its source. In addition, a bibliography of sources of data including references to sources not represented in the Abstract, is included for more general uses.

If the information on a particular subject presented in the Statistical Abstract is not sufficiently detailed, the user can refer to the publications of the agency responsible for the data. Frequently the original source from which a table has been taken contains discussions of the definitions and concepts used and presents information for smaller areas or with additional cross classifications. Occasionally, the agency has still more detailed information that can be made available from unpublished records.

Statistics for 1943.—The 1943 edition of the Statistical Abstract, the 65th in a continuous annual series, is issued at a time when the need for statistical data is great but shortage of time and personnel and the requirements of national security operate to diminish the amount of new material that can be presented. New needs created or made apparent by defense and war requirements however, have resulted in the collection of new information and the expansion of important series already in existence. As a result of the war it is safe to say that more quantitative information is being prepared and used than in any previous comparable period, and that the principal emphasis is on up-to-the-minute data that can be used immediately for reaching administrative decisions. This emphasis is illustrated by the development of a large number of current reports collected from critical segments of the war economy for use by those agencies of government responsible for wartime controls. Such reporting on rapid time schedules has been developed in connection with the war controls of materials, flow and production, foreign trade and lend-lease, rationing, and other aspects of the war economy. While much of this information is still restricted and cannot be published, some of the information so gathered is now being made available to the public through the "Facts for Industry" series prepared by the War Production Board in cooperation with the Bureau of the Census and other agencies and through other reports.

Revisions in the Current Edition.—This edition presents a total of 1,009 tables of data as compared with 996 in the 1942 edition. Major revisions introduced in the preparation of this issue involve regroupings of material within sections, the virtual completion of new material from the 16th Census of the United States, and the elimination of data deemed to be obsolete.

Among new topics covered in the 1943 edition of the Statistical Abstract are internal migration and fertility in the section on Area and Population; life table values, notifiable diseases, and hospital facilities in the section on Vital Statistics; offense rates, arrests, and criminal proceedings in the section on Crime and Criminals; labor turn-over in the section on the labor force; votes cast in State-wide elections in the section on Elections; balance sheet and income-account data for electric utilities in the section on Power; truck and bus information in the section on Public Roads and Motor Vehicles; operation of interstate motor carriers of property and passengers in the Air and Land Transportation section; and public housing in the Construction and Housing section. In addition, a large number of minor revisions appear throughout the book.

Section 5 in this edition, Labor Force, including Employment, Hours, and Earnings, has been formed from material in two sections of the 1942 edition, and replaces the section title, Wages, Hours of Labor, and Employment. Section 8 of the 1942 edition, Military and Civil Service, Elections, and Congressional Representation, has been divided into two sections in this edition; section 6, Military and Civil Service, and section 9, Elections. The section on Postal Service has been combined with that on Communication Systems, and the section on The National Park System is now included in Public Lands. Defectives and Delinquents, which formed a separate section in 1942, has been discontinued. Some of the material is now included under Vital Statistics, while other material has been augmented and forms a new section on Crime and Criminals.

In addition the form of the table of contents has been changed so that the organization of the volume is presented more concisely. The expansion of the index at the end of the volume during the past few years makes unnecessary the listing of each individual table title in the table of contents.

Public Cooperation.—The response of users of the 1942 edition of the Statistical Abstract to the return post card inserted in that edition has made available additional information on the needs of the users of the Abstract. This information is being utilized in planning future editions in order to improve the service rendered. An encouraging feature has been the large number of letters containing both praise and criticism of this volume. The suggestions and comments have been carefully evaluated and, insofar as they conform with the broad objectives of the volume and the general needs of the users, have been adopted. Other suggestions have pointed the way to needed investigations that will be made in the near future. Further comments and suggestions will be given careful consideration.

Supplements to the Statistical Abstract.—Another result of the various requests of users has been the preparation of a supplement to the Statistical Abstract presenting data from various sources for each city which had 25,000 or more inhabitants in 1940. Because of limitations of space, it is seldom possible to show within the annual volume data other than on a national basis, with geographic distributions by State and sometimes for large cities. Many uses, however, call for summary information for specific local areas, and the first supplement has been prepared in answer to some of these needs. Other supplements may be prepared from time to time to fill such needs. Copies of the Cities Supplement may be obtained by writing to the Director of the Census, Washington 25, D. C.

POPULATION ESTIMATES

No. 5.—ESTIMATED POPULATION ON JULY 1, FOR CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES, 1850 TO 1943, FOR HAWAII AND PUERTO RICO, 1914 TO 1942, AND FOR ALASKA AND THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, 1914 TO 1941

[Estimates, except those for continental United States, 1900 to 1943, for Hawaii, 1930 to 1942, and for Puerto Rico, 1940 to 1942, are based on linear interpolation or extrapolation of census figures. Estimates for the United States, 1900 to 1910, are the sums of State estimates based on available local data indicative of population change. Estimates for the United States, 1910 to 1943, for Hawaii, 1930 to 1942, and for Puerto Rico, 1940 to 1942, are based on birth and death statistics and on statistics of civilian emigration and immigration. Figures for the United States do not include troops abroad.]

AREA AND POPULATION

No. 7.—POPULATION PER SQUARE MILE, BY STATES: 1800 TO 1940

NOTE.—The population of continental United States has been divided by the total land area in order to obtain the density figures here presented. For each State or Territory the population as returned at a given census has been divided by the land area as constituted at the time that census was taken. The 1930 data, however, are based on the revised land areas used for computing the 1940 density figures and, therefore, differ from the 1930 density data previously published. The areas of Indian reservations, outside of Indian Territory, are included in the areas of the several States and Territories, although the population was not ascertained and cannot be considered in figuring density of population prior to 1890.

² Revised. Census of Southern States considered incomplete, but there has been no revision of State figures.

³ Less than one-tenth of 1.

⁴ Dakota Territory: Less than one-tenth of 1 in 1860, 0.1 in 1870, and 0.9 in 1880.

POPULATION ESTIMATES BY STATES

7

No. 8.—ESTIMATED POPULATION ON JULY 1, BY STATES: 1931 TO 1942

[Figures for 1931 to 1939 are revised estimates based on 1930 and 1940 census figures, State census figures for States which had State censuses, birth and death data, migration data from the 1940 census, and other available local data, such as school census and school enrollment figures. Estimates for 1940 to 1942 are based on the 1940 census, on registrations for War Ration Book One, and on estimated births, deaths, and migration after Apr. 1, 1940. For each year, State figures have been adjusted to add to an independent estimate of population of the United States, based on 1930 and 1940 censuses and on annual data on births, deaths, immigration, and emigration. For enumerated population, 1790 to 1940, see table 6, p. 4]

No. 10.—POPULATION FOR URBAN SIZE GROUPS AND FOR RURAL TERRITORY:
1910 TO 1940

Urban-rural classification for all years is in accordance with 1940 definitions, as follows: Urban population is in general that residing in cities and other incorporated places having 2,500 inhabitants or more. In addition, it includes unincorporated political subdivisions with a population of 10,000 or more and a population density of 1,000 or more per square mile; and in the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire, those towns (townships) which contain a village of 2,500 or more, comprising, either by itself or when combined with other villages within the same town, more than 50 percent of the total population of the town. The remainder of the population is classified as rural. The total urban population for 1880, 1890, and 1900 is as follows: 1880, 14,129,735; 1890, 22,106,265; 1900, 30,159,921. Percent urban—1880, 28.2; 1890, 35.1; 1900, 39.7.]

No. 21.—MEDIAN AGE OF URBAN AND RURAL POPULATION, BY RACE AND SEX: 1930 AND 1940

[DEFINITION OF MEDIAN.—The median may be defined as that item which is in the middle of a series arranged according to size. Thus, the median age is that age which divides a population group into two equal parts, one half being older, and one half younger, than the median. For definition of urban and rural population, see table 10, p. 11.]

No. 23.—ENUMERATED POPULATION, 1940, AND ESTIMATED FUTURE POPULATION, 1945 TO 2000, BY AGE AND SEX

[Estimates in this table are based on the assumption of medium fertility, medium mortality, no immigration, and no war losses, without correction for underenumeration of infants. They are 1 of 12 series of estimates, each based on a set of assumptions with respect to the course of fertility, mortality, and immigration, appearing in the report, Estimates of Future Population of the United States, 1940-2000, by Warren S. Thompson and P. K. Whelpton, of the Scripps Foundation for Population Research.]

1940 POPULATION SAMPLES

Certain data in tables 25, 26, and the following tables are based on tabulations of samples of the population. The figures shown have been obtained by multiplying the sample results by a factor dependent on the sample size in each case. Sample B is a sample of all individuals from the 1940 Population Schedule; Sample C and Sample W are samples of individual women 15 years old and over from the 1940 and 1910 Population Schedules, respectively; Sample D, a sample of families from the 1940 Population Schedule; and Sample F, a sample of families based for some subjects on 1940 Population Schedule entries, and for other subjects on 1940 Housing Schedule entries. For Sample B, the sample size is 5 percent. Samples C, D, and F are 5 percent in most areas, but they include 2½ percent samples in areas with sufficiently large frequencies. Sample W consists of an 8 percent sample for the North and the South, and about 12 percent for the West.

Exact agreement is not to be expected among the various samples, nor between them and the complete count, but the sample data may be used with confidence when large numbers are involved, and may be assumed to indicate patterns and relationships where small numbers are involved. Specifically, any number the size of a million or over may be assumed to agree with a complete count within 1½ percent, though most numbers of this size will agree within ¾ percent. Any number the size of 100,000 may be assumed to agree with a complete count within 4 percent, though most numbers this size will agree within 2 percent. Most numbers as small as 10,000 will agree within 10 percent. The sampling errors in subtotals formed by addition of classes are covered by the same statements. More detailed statements regarding the sampling errors are given in the original sources.

No. 28.—FOREIGN-BORN WHITE POPULATION, 1910 TO 1940, AND TOTAL FOREIGN-BORN, 1900, BY COUNTRY OF BIRTH

[All classifications of 1940 population according to country of birth are based on political boundaries of Jan. 1, 1937. Classification of population at earlier censuses is based for the most part on political boundaries of those years. For most countries of Europe the total foreign-born population given for 1900 is almost entirely white.]

¹ Obtained by dividing total population by number of families (or private households); hence not strictly average size of private families because total population includes an appreciable number of persons who are members of quasi households. Trend from one census to another, however, is practically the same as that for average size of private families.

No. 51.—GROSS AND NET REPRODUCTION RATES, BY COLOR, BY REGIONS, URBAN AND RURAL: 1935 TO 1940, 1930 TO 1935, AND 1905 TO 1910

[Statistics for 1935 to 1940 and 1930 to 1935 based on Sample C, and those for 1905 to 1910 based on Sample W; see p. 29. Urban-rural classification is in accordance with 1940 definitions (see headnote, table 10). A net reproduction rate of 1,000 means that each generation would just replace itself, if birth and death rates of specified period were to continue indefinitely, in the absence of net immigration. A rate above 1,000 implies a potentially gaining population, and a rate below 1,000, a potentially declining population. A gross reproduction rate of 1,000 means that if all women born at beginning of generation were to live through their reproductive period and continue birth rates existing at time of their birth, they would barely reproduce themselves, assuming no migration from outside the area. Where gross reproduction rate is less than 1,000, no improvement in mortality alone would prevent potential decline in population. Rates not shown for nonwhite in areas having, in 1940, less than 25,000 nonwhite women 15 to 49 years old]

No. 52.—INSTITUTIONAL POPULATION 14 YEARS OLD AND OVER—SUMMARY
FOR THE UNITED STATES: 1940

NOTE.—Figures cover persons who were reported as inmates of public or private institutions of specified types. Officials and attendants were excluded, as were patients in general hospitals and tuberculosis sanitariums. Persons in religious institutions and Veterans' Administration Facilities were included only if the establishment had a majority of delinquents, mental patients, aged, or incurables.

¹ Represents the merger of the Congregational Churches and the General Convention of the Christian Church. As it was formed since the Census of Religious Bodies, 1926, no comparative data are available.

² Represents the federation of 5 separate bodies—namely, American Lutheran Church, Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod of North America, Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, Lutheran Free Church, and United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. As it was formed since the Census of Religious Bodies, 1926, no comparative data are available.

³ Includes 5 synods, of which the largest is the Synod of Missouri, Ohio, and other States.

2. VITAL STATISTICS

(INCLUDING HEALTH AND MEDICAL CARE)

[Statistics in this section relate to continental United States except those in table 81]

GENERAL NOTE

Births and Deaths.—Births and deaths are registered by the States, and transcripts of the original certificates are received and tabulated by the Bureau of the Census. Although the system for the collection of death statistics was formed in 1880, it was not until 1900 that mortality data were collected on an annual basis. The original registration States consisted of 10 States and the District of Columbia in 1900 but since then there has been a gradual expansion of the registration system. However, it was not until 1933 that all of the States were represented in the United States registration area. The national collection of birth statistics was begun in 1915, with 10 States and the District of Columbia, and by 1933 all of the States were included in the birth-registration system. The registration of births was 92.5 percent complete in the United States in 1940. Estimates of completeness of registration by color, city size, and States are given in table 70.

Because of the gradual growth of the "registration" systems (see tables 64, 65, and 71), the number of births and deaths recorded for the years prior to 1933 are not comparable, but, in most cases, the rates for the birth- and death-registration States may be regarded as good approximations of the national figures.

In the previous editions of the Statistical Abstract of the United States, most of the birth and death statistics were compiled according to the places in which the births or the deaths occurred. These figures are of interest and value but inasmuch as the population census is compiled according to the usual place of residence, the tabulation of vital statistics by place of occurrence has seriously restricted, for certain purposes, the use of these data. Also, place of occurrence data are greatly affected by migration to areas where hospital and institution facilities for medical care or for childbirth exist. Therefore, vital statistics based upon the place of residence of the mother of the child or upon the place of residence of the decedent are generally to be preferred over data tabulated according to the place of occurrence of the births or deaths.

Place of residence tabulations on an annual basis are available for the United States beginning in 1937. However, for convenience, the data published in this section include place-of-residence statistics starting with the year 1940. All data prior to 1940, except where noted, are by place of occurrence. This apparent discontinuity is not particularly serious since the place-of-residence statistics do not differ from those by place of occurrence for the entire United States. Also the State totals, except in certain cases, are not appreciably different.

In the interpretation of crude rates, cognizance must be taken of the differences in the distribution of the population according to such factors as age, race, and sex. This is of particular importance if the crude death rates are to be used as indexes of the health conditions of a community, or if crude birth rates are to be used as a measure of intrinsic biologic fertility.

Data for stillbirths are excluded from the figures for both births and deaths. Rates, except as noted, are based on the latest midyear estimates of the population and may differ from those appearing in other publications.

No. 64.—BIRTH- AND DEATH-REGISTRATION AREAS—STATES INCLUDED AND YEAR WHEN ADMITTED: 1880 TO 1933

NOTE.—In each year prior to 1933, the death-registration area included besides the registration States, as given below, a number of cities in nonregistration States. Beginning with 1933, all States have been included in both the birth- and death-registration areas.

Basic figures are published in annual reports, as follows: 1915 and 1920, Birth Statistics; 1925-36, Birth, Stillbirth, and Infant Mortality Statistics; 1915-36, Mortality Statistics; 1937-42, Vital Statistics of the United States, Parts I and II.

No. 66.—BIRTHS AND DEATHS, BY PLACE OF OCCURRENCE AND BY PLACE OF RESIDENCE, FOR EACH CITY OF 100,000 OR MORE IN 1940: 1942

The first and second columns compare numbers of births occurring in specified cities (regardless of places of residence of mothers) with numbers of births to mothers whose permanent homes were in the specified cities (regardless of places of occurrence of such births). Similarly, the third and fourth columns compare numbers of deaths occurring in specified cities (regardless of places of residence of decedents) with numbers of deaths of residents of the specified cities (regardless of places of occurrence of such deaths). For example: Total number of births occurring in Akron (including births to mothers having their permanent homes elsewhere) was 6,470; whereas total number of births to mothers having their permanent homes in Akron (including births occurring elsewhere) was 5,504; see general note, p. 67]

No. 87.—HOSPITAL FACILITIES, BY STATES: 1942

Data cover hospitals, sanatoriums, and related institutions registered by the American Medical Association. Registration is a basic recognition extended to all hospitals and related institutions concerning which the A. M. A. has no evidence of irregular or unsafe practices. Data do not include 539 hospitals, etc. (capacity, 15,260), found unsatisfactory for registration by the A. M. A., 2,698 unclassified emergency stations, clinics, etc., with facilities for bed care (capacity unknown), and 62 hospitals and sanatoriums recently opened for which registrations are pending. There is some incompleteness, extent unknown, in figures on recently established federal hospitals due to withholding of information that might aid our country's enemies]

No. 98.—ARRESTS BY AGE GROUPS: 1942

[Data are from arrest records, evidenced by fingerprint cards received at the F. B. I. during year, and are limited to instances of arrests for violations of State laws and municipal ordinances. Fingerprint cards representing arrests for violations of Federal laws or representing commitments to any type of penal institution are excluded. Data do not represent all persons arrested, as fingerprint cards are not forwarded to Washington for every individual taken into custody. Numbers of arrest records in lower age groups are probably incomplete because of practice of some jurisdictions not to fingerprint youthful offenders]

4. IMMIGRATION, EMIGRATION, AND NATURALIZATION

GENERAL NOTE.—In compiling immigration and emigration statistics, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, beginning with 1904, 1901, and 1902, respectively, have been treated as integral parts of the United States. In prior years the transfer of population between these areas and the United States was treated as assimilation and emigration. The movement of population between the Philippine Islands and the United States was treated as immigration and emigration prior to July 1, 1898, and has been so treated since May 1, 1934, but was not accounted for in the statistics for the period between those dates.

No. 107.—IMMIGRATION: 1821 TO 1943

NOTE.—For 1821 to 1867 the figures represent alien passengers arriving; for 1868 to 1903, immigrants arriving; for 1904 to 1906, aliens admitted; for 1907 to date, immigrant aliens admitted. Data are for fiscal years ended June 30 except as noted; for periods they are totals, not annual averages.

No. 111.—IMMIGRATION, BY COUNTRY OF ORIGIN, BY DECADES: 1851 TO 1940

NOTE.—For 1851 to 1867 figures represent alien passengers arriving; for 1868 to 1903, immigrants arriving; for 1904 to 1906, aliens admitted; thereafter, immigrant aliens admitted. Data prior to 1906 cover countries whence aliens came; thereafter, countries of last permanent residence. Owing to changes in the lists of countries separately reported and to changes in boundaries, data for certain countries are not comparable throughout. Countries added to the list since the beginning of the World War were therefore included with the countries to which they belonged. Data are totals (not annual averages) for periods ended June 30 since 1870, Dec. 31 theretofore, except as noted.

No. 115.—IMMIGRATION QUOTAS ALLOTTED AND QUOTA ALIENS ADMITTED, BY COUNTRY OF BIRTH: YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 1925 TO 1943

NOTE.—The Immigration Act of 1921 limited the number of aliens admitted annually of any nationality subject to the quota law, to 3 percent of the number of foreign-born persons of such nationality resident in continental United States as determined by the census of 1910; the population plan of the act of 1924, to 2 percent according to the census of 1890. The national origins clause of the latter act, which became effective July 1, 1929, provided that the quota of any nationality should be computed by applying to 160,000 the ratio between the calculated number of inhabitants in continental United States in 1920 owing their origin to the nationality concerned and the total inhabitants in the United States of all nationalities subject to the quota law. (For estimates of white population by countries of origin, calculated as a basis for immigration quotas, see table 97, Statistical Abstract, 1932.) Under the act of 1924, the minimum quota is 100. Both immigrant and nonimmigrant aliens may appear in quota law statistics, or aliens of both classes may not be counted against quotas at all.

¹ Quota for 1924; revisions from 1922 or 1923 allotments for certain countries were made due to changes in boundaries or other adjustments. Quota immigrants admitted, 1922 to 1924, are as follows: 1922, 243,953; 1923, 335,480; 1924, 357,643. For admissions by countries see the 1934 and previous issues of the Statistical Abstract.

⁶ Includes quota immigrants born in colonies, dependencies, or protectorates of European countries.

² Includes persons who, during the week of Mar. 24–30, 1940, were at work on, or assigned to, public emergency work projects conducted by the Work Projects Administration (WPA), the National Youth Administration (NYA), the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC), or State or local work relief agencies. In the interpretation of the data for persons on public emergency work, allowance must be made for the misclassification in the census returns of considerable numbers of public emergency workers. The number of persons reported in the census as on public emergency work in the United States was 2,529,606, whereas the number recorded on the pay rolls of the Federal emergency work agencies at about the time of the census was 2,906,196 excluding the NYA Student Work Program, and 3,377,978 including that program. The most common type of misclassification was the reporting of the emergency workers as At work. Persons on the NYA Student Work Program were very frequently returned as in school and not in the labor force. There is also evidence that a considerable number of emergency workers were classified as Seeking work.

³ Includes persons without work of any sort in the week of Mar. 24–30, 1940, who were actively seeking work during that week. This category is composed of both experienced and new workers, the latter being persons who had not previously worked full time for 1 month or more.

² Including data for age unknown.

NO. 128.—DETAILED INDUSTRY OF PERSONS IN THE EXPERIENCED LABOR FORCE, AND OF EMPLOYED PERSONS (EXCEPT ON PUBLIC EMERGENCY WORK), BY SEX: 1940

[Persons in the experienced labor force comprise employed persons (except on public emergency work), persons on public emergency work, and workers seeking work who had formerly worked full time for 1 month or more, see footnotes on table 122. Industry figures shown below for employed (except on public emergency work) refer to the industry in which engaged during census week, and are based on complete census returns. Industry figures for remaining experienced labor force groups, not shown separately in this table, refer to the industry in which the person was engaged when employed at his usual occupation and at which occupation he was still physically able to work, and are based on Sample B, see p. 29. Figures for "Experienced labor force," therefore, represent a summation of figures for current industry and usual industry which in turn are based on complete census returns and Sample B, respectively]

NO. 131.—DETAILED OCCUPATION OF PERSONS IN THE EXPERIENCED LABOR FORCE AND OF EMPLOYED PERSONS (EXCEPT ON PUBLIC EMERGENCY WORK), BY SEX: 1940

[Persons in the experienced labor force comprise employed persons (except on public emergency work) persons on public emergency work, and workers seeking work who had formerly worked full time for 1 month or more, see footnotes on table 122. Occupation figures shown below for employed (except on public emergency work) refer to the occupation in which engaged during census week, and are based on complete census returns. Occupation figures for remaining experienced labor force groups, not shown separately in this table, refer to the occupation which the person regarded as his usual occupation and at which he was still physically able to work, and are based on Sample B, see p. 29. Figures for "Experienced labor force", therefore, represent a summation of figures for current and usual occupation based on complete census returns and Sample B, respectively.]

MONTHS WORKED BY INDUSTRY GROUP

137

No. 135.—MONTHS WORKED IN 1939 BY PERSONS WHO WERE WAGE OR SALARY WORKERS (EXCEPT PERSONS ON PUBLIC EMERGENCY WORK) IN 1940, BY MAJOR INDUSTRY GROUP AND SEX

[Statistics include persons who were employed as wage or salary workers (except on public emergency work) during the census week, and persons seeking work who were last employed as wage or salary workers. Employed persons were classified by industry according to the job in which engaged during the census week; persons seeking work were classified according to the last job of 1 month or more. Periods of part-time work were reported in full-time equivalents.]

No. 141.—INDEXES OF WAGE-EARNER EMPLOYMENT AND WAGE-EARNER PAY ROLLS IN MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES, BY MONTHS: 1925 TO 1943

[The indexes and estimates for "all manufacturing" and the major groups shown in tables 140, 142-144, have been adjusted to conform to levels indicated by final 1941 and preliminary second quarter 1942 data made available by the Bureau of Employment Security of The Federal Security Agency. The indexes, estimates, and averages presented herein supersede those contained in previous issues of the Statistical Abstract based on 1923-25=100, and are not comparable with data in mimeographed releases for months prior to January 1943 and in issues of the Monthly Labor Review prior to March 1943. Indexes for individual industries have been adjusted to levels indicated by the 1939 Census of Manufactures, but not to Federal Security Agency data]

No. 146.—AVERAGE WEEKLY AND HOURLY EARNINGS IN 25 MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES, BY LABOR GROUPS: 1927 TO 1942

[Index numbers based on 1923 as 100. Data cover a representative number of plants which employed 2,731,000 workers during 1942. The earnings are computed by weighting the average earnings in each industry according to the relative importance of the industry as revealed by the Federal Biennial Census of Manufactures for 1923. In addition, each labor group is weighted according to the relative proportion of the group in each industry as revealed in the Conference Board's studies during the 3-year period 1927-29. The pay-roll data are based upon the first full week in each month, or, if a generally recognized holiday falls in that week, upon the succeeding week].

No. 147.—INDEXES OF AVERAGE WEEKLY EARNINGS IN MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES; COST OF LIVING; WEEKLY EARNINGS ADJUSTED TO COST OF LIVING: 1925 TO 1942

No. 148.—INDEXES OF EMPLOYMENT AND PAY ROLLS IN SELECTED NONMANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES: 1939 TO 1942

[Data from the 1939 Census of Mineral Industries and the 1939 Census of Business have been used in adjusting the indexes for industries in the mining, trade, and service divisions. In certain industries, such as street railways, where no census has been taken since 1937, the indexes have been rebased, but no further adjustments have been made.]

No. 151.—MONTHLY LABOR TURNOVER RATES (PER 100 EMPLOYEES) IN MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES: 1939, 1942, AND 1943

[Turnover rates are not comparable to the employment and pay-roll data presented in tables 140-144, as the former are based on data for the entire month, while the latter refer only to pay periods ending nearest the middle of the month. In addition, labor turnover data refer to all employees whereas the employment and pay-roll data relate only to wage earners. Certain seasonal industries, such as canning and preserving, are not covered by the labor turnover survey and the sample is not as extensive as that of the employment survey which includes a larger number of small plants]

WAGES AND HOURS

No. 153.—WAGE RATES PER HOUR AND HOURS PER WEEK—INDEXES OF UNION SCALES IN BUILDING AND PRINTING TRADES, BY OCCUPATIONS: 1910 TO 1943

[Data for the earlier years cover 39 cities. The coverage was gradually extended until 75 cities were included. Prior to 1938 the figures were based upon the scale prevailing May 15 each year. From 1938 to 1942 the study was made as of June 1, except for building trades rates in 1942, which was made as of July 1. In 1943, the data were collected as of July 1 for both the building and printing trades. The relative wages are percentages which indicate the change in wages per hour. The relative hours are percentages showing the change in the regular full-time hours per week, account not being taken of loss of time from slack work or other causes, nor of overtime work. Leaders indicate data not available.]

LABOR FORCE

² Exceeds number employed in industry as several thousand coal miners were involved in more than 1 strike during year. ³ Included in other nonmanufacturing industries.

No. 155.—STRIKES—NUMBER, WORKERS INVOLVED, AND MAN-DAYS IDLE, BY MAJOR ISSUES INVOLVED: 1928 TO 1942

[The term "strike" is here used in the generic sense to include all stoppages of work due to labor disputes, whether initiated by employers (lock-outs) or by workers. Strikes involving fewer than 6 workers or lasting less than 1 day are not included. Information regarding strikes is obtained directly from companies and unions involved as well as from the various Government labor boards, conciliation services and other neutral parties. Initial leads or notices concerning strikes are obtained largely from the public press, union publications, and trade journals as well as from the various Government agencies dealing with labor disputes.]

¹ Excludes Indians and enrollees in Territories and outlying possessions, averaging about 11,000 per month. Data prior to July 1933 are: April, 37,189; May, 154,238; and June, 279,722.

⁴ Includes amounts expended or obligated on Indian Reservations and in Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, and, beginning with 1934-35, in Virgin Islands. Excludes amounts expended for acquisition of land, which from April 1933 to June 1937 totaled $12,058,000 (adjusted); no expenditures on this account thereafter.

¹ Data for 1940 and 1941 have been revised.

³ Data represent averages of number of persons on pay roll for last pay period of month.

⁵ Beginning December 1941, military personnel and pay-roll data have not been included in this table. Figures for 1941, therefore, do not include December 1941 and are revised.

No. 165.—ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES—STRENGTH OF COMPONENT PARTS:
1890 to 1941

NOTE.—For period prior to 1914, table covers quinquennial years and years in which considerable changes occurred in Regular Army. Figures for Reserve officers include data for Regular Army enlisted men, and also, for years prior to 1924, for National Guard officers holding commissions in the Reserve. There is, therefore, some duplication in the grand totals, but the amount of this duplication is relatively small.

¹ Includes Philippine Scouts beginning with 1902. Figures for 1919 to 1926, inclusive, include in most cases World War emergency personnel still in service. All emergency enlisted men still in service were discharged on July 2, 1921. On Nov. 11, 1926, the last emergency officer was discharged, thereby completing the demobilization of the World War Army. Retired personnel on active duty are not included. (On June 30, 1941, 495 retired officers and 13 retired enlisted men had returned to active duty.) Beginning with 1919, data for warrant officers are included; these numbered 731 on June 30, 1941.

² State militia prior to act of June 3, 1916. Beginning with 1924, data for warrant officers are included; these numbered 200 on June 30, 1941. ³ U. S. Volunteers. ⁴ Not available. ⁵ Regular Army Reserve.

⁸ Officers' Reserve Corps. Beginning with 1924, figures do not include data for persons holding commissions also in National Guard. Figure for 1941 includes 57,309 officers on extended active duty.

⁹ Regular Army Reserve, 8,382; Enlisted Reserve Corps, 35,000 (estimated).

¹² Estimates only. Under orders of the Secretary of War all components had been merged into one army known as "The United States Army."

¹³ Enlisted Reserve Corps.

¹⁴ Enlisted Reserve Corps, 1939, 3,054; 1940, 3,233; Regular Army Reserve, 1939, 19,301; 1940, 28,020. All enlistments in Regular Army Reserve suspended as of Dec. 31, 1940, and members called to active duty on or before Feb. 15, 1941, except those who were deferred until July 1, 1941, in order to complete college or university courses.

¹⁵ Includes 74,602 unassigned selectees.

¹⁶ Enlisted men, 491,777 (including 10,919 Regular Army Reserve and 1,470 Army of United States with the Regular Army); selectees, 363,459.

¹⁷ Enlisted men, 262,722 (including 20,590 Army of United States with the National Guard); selectees, 168,854.

¹⁸ Enlisted Reserve Corps. Includes 35 enlisted Reserve Corps men on active duty.

No. 175.—CIVIL SERVICE AND CANAL ZONE RETIREMENT: 1921 TO 1942

[Retirement for civil-service employees was established by act of May 22, 1920. Under this act and its amendments, employees of the classified service and certain other groups, including unclassified laborers subject to labor regulations, are eligible for retirement on annuity. One of the most important enactments of civil service retirement legislation since the inauguration of the system was the amendatory act of Jan. 24, 1942, Public Law 411, 77th Cong., further amended Mar. 7, 1942. Among the important changes brought about by this law are: Uniform compulsory retirement age of 70 for all employees; optional retirement at age 60 after at least 30 years' service or at age 62 with 15 or more years of service, the option to be exercised by either the employee or the head of the department; vested title to annuity in case of voluntary or involuntary separation after service of at least 5 years; and the establishment of a new minimum method to provide annuities that are directly related to salaries and service. The employee contribution rate has been increased from 3½ to 5 percent of the basic salary. The employee contribution rate was 2½ percent prior to July 1, 1926, and 3½ percent from that time until the amendment of Jan. 24, 1942. By act of Mar. 2, 1931 (effective July 1, 1931), special provision was made for employees of the Panama Canal and Panama Canal R. R., who theretofore had been eligible for retirement under the civil-service retirement and disability act.]

² For disbursements by wars, see table 178.

⁶ Included under "Compensation."

7. SOCIAL SECURITY

[Data in this section relate to continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii, except as noted]

GENERAL NOTE

Old-age and survivors insurance.—Federal old-age and survivors insurance, administered by the Social Security Board under the Social Security Act as amended in August 1939, covers employment in industry and commerce. Specified employments are excepted, notably agricultural labor, domestic service in private homes, services for government and for certain types of nonprofit organizations, services for railroads and certain of their subsidiaries and affiliates, and self-employment. In January 1940, monthly benefits became payable to qualified workers at age 65 and also to certain dependents of beneficiaries and certain survivors of insured workers. Benefits are based on the legally defined average wage of the insured and are paid from the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, to which is appropriated annually an amount equal to the total taxes paid by employers and employees under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act.

Employment security.—The Federal-State unemployment compensation program provides for payments to insured industrial and commercial workers who are able to work but unable to find jobs. Contributions, based on wages, are paid by employers, and in some States also by employees, to provide funds to be used solely for the payment of benefits, which are based on prior employment and wages. Under the Social Security Act the Social Security Board has two statutory responsibilities in administering the unemployment compensation program. It certifies each year to the Secretary of the Treasury, for purposes of normal and additional credits under the provisions of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, the State unemployment compensation laws, which conform to the standards prescribed by the Social Security Act; it also certifies grants to defray necessary costs of administering State unemployment compensation laws for those States which, in law and administration, conform to the standards prescribed in title III of the act. Funds are certified in the amounts determined by the Board to be necessary for the proper and efficient administration of State unemployment compensation laws, including the administration of State employment services in connection with the payment of benefits. Nation-wide administration of the State employment services was assumed by the Social Security Board on Jan. 1, 1942, and was transferred to the War Manpower Commission on Dec. 1, 1942.

Public assistance.—Under the Social Security Act, the Federal Government shares with the States the costs of administration and money payments for special types of public assistance (aid to needy persons aged 65 and over, needy blind, and dependent children under the age of 16 who have been deprived of parental support, or under the age of 18 if regularly attending school). To receive a Federal grant under any one of these programs, a State must have a plan approved by the Social Security Board as meeting the basic requirements of the act.

Social insurance and public aid.—For analysis of general problems of social security and comparison of social insurance and public assistance under the Social Security Act with other public provision for insurance payments and public aid, the Social Security Board issues data obtained from Federal and State agencies on benefits and beneficiaries under selected social insurance systems, on earnings and persons employed on Federal work programs, and on payments and recipients under special types of assistance, and general assistance.

No. 187.—PAYMENTS UNDER SELECTED SOCIAL INSURANCE AND RETIREMENT PROGRAMS: 1936 TO 1942

[In thousands of dollars. Data represent payments to individuals and exclude cost of administration. Payments under Social Security Act (including retroactive payments) and payments under Railroad Retirement Act (including retroactive payments and excluding cancellations), and payments under Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act are amounts certified; payments under Civil Service Commission and Veterans' Administration are disbursements minus cancellations. Data for State and local retirement systems and workmen's compensation are estimated. State unemployment insurance payments are checks issued by State agencies]

¹ Beginning September 1942, represents persons who indicated availability for work within 60 days before date to which data relate. Through June 1942, clearance of inactive applications from file varied among and within States and relates to end of month.

² Data for 1936 and 1937 represent complete placements only, data for later years include supplementary placements (verified placements made without all steps necessary for complete placement).

³ Excludes forestry and fishery through 1939.

⁴ Number of States and Territories paying benefits as follows: 1936 and 1937, 1; 1938—January–March, 23; April–June, 25; July–August, 28; September–November, 29; December, 31. 1939—January–June, 49; July and thereafter, 51.

⁵ Excludes railroads and other groups subject, as of July 1, 1939, to Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act; data for 1942 are estimates based on 1941 coverage provisions of State laws.

⁶ Represents workers in covered employment on last pay roll of each type (weekly, semimonthly, etc.) in month.

⁷ Represents total wages in covered employment for all pay periods ended in period. Average wages cannot be computed from these figures because data on number of workers relate to last pay roll in month. Wages for 1938 and 1939 adjusted to include, for New York, estimated nontaxable wages (wages in excess of $3,000 to an individual from 1 employer).

⁸ Data for 1936–39 not available; for years 1940–42 estimated; for months of 1942, represent average weeks of unemployment compensated during weeks ended in month.

⁹ For 1936–39, represents number of benefit payments.

¹⁰ Unadjusted for voided benefit checks. Net (adjusted) payments were: 1938, $393,786,000; 1939, $429,298,000; 1940, $518,700,000; 1941, $344,321,000; 1942, $344,084,000.

¹¹ Average monthly employment.

¹² As of Nov. 14, 1942. Excludes Alaska and Hawaii; data not available.

¹³ Includes $104,000 resulting from review of 1938–41 seasonal claims in Oregon, not distributed by month.

¹⁴ As of Sept. 12, 1942. Excludes Alaska and Hawaii; data not available.

¹ Represents sum of balances in State clearing account and benefit-payment account, and in State unemployment trust fund account in U. S. Treasury. State unemployment trust fund accounts reflect transfers to railroad unemployment insurance account and include interest credited.

² Represents contributions, penalties, and interest from employers, and contributions from employees. Adjusted for refunds of contributions and for dishonored contribution checks. Current contribution rates (percent of taxable wages) were: For employers, 2.7 percent except in Michigan, where rate was 3.0 percent; for employees, 1.5 percent in Rhode Island to June 30, 1942, thereafter 0.5 percent, and 1.0 percent in Alabama, California, Kentucky (discontinued July 1, 1942), and New Jersey. Experience rating, resulting in modified employer contribution rates, effective in 17 States in 1941 and 34 States in 1942. All States collect contributions on quarterly basis, either wholly or in part; West Virginia and Wisconsin collected on monthly basis in 1941.

¹ Data for 1933-January 1936 represent payments from State and local funds only and number of recipients of such payments; for subsequent years, payments from Federal, State, and local funds for programs administered under State plans approved by Social Security Board and from State and local funds for programs administered under State laws without Federal participation, and number of recipients of such payments. Data exclude cost of hospitalization and burial and, beginning September 1940, of medical care and number of recipients of such assistance.

² Data for January 1933-March 1937 from WPA; those for 1933-35 represent direct relief payments and number of cases aided, and number of relief and nonrelief persons (other than administrative employees) employed under general relief program of Federal Emergency Relief Administration, and include estimated amount of relief extended and number of cases aided by local authorities from public funds under poor laws. Data exclude cost of hospitalization and burial and, beginning September 1940, of medical care, and number of recipients of such assistance.

³ Data from WPA; represent relief extended to cases and number of cases receiving relief during month under emergency education, student aid, rural rehabilitation, and transient programs of emergency relief administration, largely financed from Federal Emergency Relief Administration funds.

⁴ Data from FSA; represent net number and net amount of emergency grant vouchers certified to cases and number of cases receiving commodities and value of such commodities, purchased by FSA and distributed during period. Ordinarily only 1 grant voucher per case is certified per month.

⁵ Data dropped from series beginning July 1942; program no longer significant or not considered public aid.

⁶ Data represent earnings and number of persons, exclusive of administrative employees, on projects operated under Federal work programs.

⁸ Data for September 1935-June 1939 from WPA; subsequently, from NYA. Represent earnings during all pay-roll periods ended during year and number of persons employed during month except, beginning July 1941, data for persons employed on out-of-school work program based on average of weekly employment counts during month.

⁹ Data from WPA; represent earnings during year and average weekly number of persons employed during month on projects operated by WPA. Beginning July 1938 for earnings and September 1938 for persons employed, data represent employment on Federal agency projects financed by transfer of WPA funds; earnings cover all pay-roll periods ended during year.

¹¹ Data from Bureau of Labor Statistics; represent earnings and number of persons employed on projects financed in whole or in part from emergency Federal funds other than those of CWA, CCC, NYA, and WPA; cover all pay-roll periods ended during year, and average weekly number of persons employed during monthly period ended on 15th. Beginning October 1941, represent employment and earnings on projects financed from PWA funds only; figures not available for other Federal agency projects financed under Emergency Relief Appropriation acts.

³ Includes program administered without Federal participation.

⁴ Estimated.

⁵ Includes unknown number of cases receiving medical care, hospitalization, and burial only, and total payments for these services.

⁶ In addition, payments amounting to $8,648 were made to 437 families in behalf of 1,195 children under program without State or Federal participation.

² For July–November 1942. As of Dec. 1, 1942, U. S. Employment Service was transferred to War Manpower Commission. For January–November 1942, USES was administered by Social Security Board and financed solely from funds under title III of Social Security Act. Prior to 1942, USES was financed from 3 sources: State funds, matching Federal grants to States under Wagner–Peysner Act, and Federal grants under title III.

³ Excludes $671,000 expended for postage.

⁴ No plan approved by Social Security Board.

⁵ Not available; funds for District of Columbia employment service included in funds of Federal Bureau of Employment Security.

No. 207.—RAILROAD RETIREMENT—BENEFIT PAYMENTS CERTIFIED TO THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, BY CLASS OF BENEFIT: 1936 TO 1942

NOTE.—The Railroad Retirement Act, as passed in 1935 and amended in 1937, established a Federal retirement system for railroad employees. Employers under the act include carriers—railroads, express companies, and sleeping car companies, subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act; carrier affiliates which perform a service in connection with transportation by railroad—refrigerator-car loan companies, for example; organizations such as railroad or traffic associations maintained by 2 or more employers; and standard railway-labor organizations, national in scope. The act provides for 5 classes of retirement benefits:

(1) Employee annuities, both disability and old age, based on an employee's years of service and average monthly compensation, exclusive of earnings above $300, with employers under the act.

(2) Survivor annuities, paid to the surviving spouse of a deceased employee annuitant who had elected a reduced annuity during his or her lifetime in order to provide a lifetime annuity for his or her surviving spouse.

(3) Death-benefit annuities, paid under the 1935 act to the surviving spouse or dependent next of kin of a deceased annuitant or of a deceased employee who at the time of his or her death was entitled to receive an annuity. These annuities are equal to half the annuities paid or payable to the employee annuitants before their death, and are payable for 12 months.

(4) Lump-sum death benefits, paid under the 1937 act to 1 or more designated beneficiaries or to 1 or more of the deceased employee's surviving relatives, as prescribed in the amendment of Apr. 8, 1942. These benefits are equal to 4 percent of the compensation earned as an employee after Dec. 31, 1936 (excluding compensation in excess of $300 in any 1 month), less the aggregate amount of any employee or survivor annuities that may have been paid. If an employee annuitant had elected a joint-and-survivor annuity and his or her spouse was alive at the time of his or her death, the death benefit is not payable until after the death of the spouse.

(5) Pensions paid under the 1937 act to individuals who were, on both March 1 and July 1, 1937, on the pension or gratuity rolls of employers under the act and who were not eligible on July 1, 1937, for annuities based in whole or in part on service prior to Jan. 1, 1937. The pensions are equal in amount to the individual pensions or gratuities granted by employers, but cannot exceed $120 per month.

The funds of the retirement system come from an equal tax on employers and employees, based on the amount of compensation, not in excess of $300 in any 1 calendar month, earned by each employee. The changes in the tax rate are as follows: Calendar years 1937, 1938, 1939, rate 2¾ percent; 1940, 1941, 1942, rate 3 percent; 1943, 1944, 1945, rate 3¼ percent; 1946, 1947, 1948, rate 3½ percent; 1949 and subsequent years, rate 3¾ percent. Thus the total amount of the tax available for the first 3 years of the system is 5½ percent of total employee compensation (as defined above), and for the year 1949 and thereafter it will be 7½ percent.

Figures for annuities and pensions include amounts payable for a given month on all claims certified to the end of the month and still in force, and retroactive monthly payments on claims initially certified or recertified during the month. Cancellations and repayments of amounts certified in previous months are deducted.

NUMBER OF PAYMENTS INITIALLY CERTIFIED, TERMINATED BY DEATH, AND

NOTE.—Figures for initial certifications are for period during which payment was first certified and not for period during which annuity began to accrue. Figures for terminations by death are for period during which notice of death was received and not for period during which beneficiary died. Cumulative figures exclude claims declared ineligible, erroneous certifications, and erroneous reports of death. In-force figures as of any date include only certifications made up to that date, less terminations by death reported by that date; they are also adjusted for recertifications, reinstatements, and terminations other than by death (suspension, return to service, recovery from disability, and commutation to lump-sum payment), items which are not shown in this table. ¹ In a few cases payments are made to more than 1 survivor on account of the death of a single individual. Such payments are here counted as single items. Terminations include those by death and by expiration of 12-month period for which death-benefit annuities are payable. Practically all terminations are of the latter type.

² Represents benefits rather than individual beneficiaries. In 1 case death-benefit annuity was divided among 7 beneficiaries; in 72 cases, the same individual received both a survivor and death-benefit annuity.

³ Individuals with respect to whose deaths benefits were certified, not individuals certified to receive benefits. About 5 percent of benefits were divided between 2 or more individuals.

⁴ Includes for Hawaii: 18 employee annuities at a total monthly rate of $1,019; for Alaska: 31 employee annuities at $1,772, 1 survivor annuity at $17, and 2 lump-sum death benefits totaling $767. Payments representing 195 monthly benefits at a total rate of $7,828 to beneficiaries outside territorial United States and Canada were deposited in a special foreign funds account in the Treasury pursuant to Executive Order No. 8389, dated Apr. 10, 1940, and subsequent amendments thereto.

No. 212.—NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES, BY AMOUNT OF CREDITED COMPENSATION AND NUMBER OF MONTHS OF SERVICE: 1941

[Includes employees covered under Railroad Retirement and Railroad Unemployment Insurance Acts for whom wages were reported by subject employers. Some of these employees also had wages taxable under Federal Insurance Contributions Act and are therefore included in preceding tables on old-age and survivors insurance. The earnings in this table include wages and salaries, commissions, back pay and payments for time lost as an employee, reported by subject employers; however, the excess over $300 in any one calendar month for an employee is excluded. A month of service is a calendar month in which service for compensation was rendered to subject employers or with respect to which payment was made for time lost as an employee.]

NO. 213.—RAILROAD UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE—NUMBER OF APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES OF BENEFIT RIGHTS RECEIVED, CERTIFICATES OF BENEFIT RIGHTS ISSUED, CLAIMS RECEIVED, NUMBER AND AMOUNT OF BENEFIT PAYMENTS CERTIFIED, AVERAGE BENEFIT PAYMENT AND NUMBER OF ACCOUNTS OPENED AND EXHAUSTED: JUNE 16, 1939, THROUGH JUNE 1943

[The Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, as passed in 1938 and amended in 1939 and 1940, established a Federal unemployment insurance system for the same employees who are covered by the Railroad Retirement Act. Under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act contributions first began to accrue and benefits first became payable as of July 1, 1939. Contributions amounting to 3 percent of pay rolls are collected from the employers. Unemployed employees may draw benefits if they have earned at least $150 of creditable earnings in the base year and have served a waiting period for the benefit year. Under the act prior to the 1940 amendment, as well as under the amended act, the daily benefit amount is related to the amount of base-year earnings.]

¹ An application for a certificate of benefit rights is submitted when an unemployed worker applies for unemployment insurance benefits for the first time in a benefit year.

² A certificate of benefit rights is issued to each employee who has filed an application for such a certificate and who has had sufficient earnings from a railroad employer in the base year to qualify for unemployment insurance benefits.

⁴ Adjusted for overpayments and recovery of underpayments. On claims applying to 15-day periods begun prior to Nov. 1, 1940, benefit payments were certified for qualified claimants who had served their waiting period if the claimant registered for at least 8 days of unemployment; the amount of the certification is the product of the daily benefit amount and the number of days of unemployment in excess of 7. On claims applying to 14-day periods begun on or after Nov. 1, 1940, a benefit payment is certified for qualified claimants who had served their waiting period if the claimant registered for at least 5 days of unemployment, the amount certified being the product of the daily benefit amount and the number of day of unemployment in excess of 4. In addition, benefits are certified on waiting-period claims, if the number of days of unemployment in such period is 8 or more; on such claims the benefit is calculated as the product of the daily benefit amount and the number of days of unemployment in excess of 7. The maximum number of days of unemployment for which benefits were paid was 80 before Nov. 1, 1940, and 100 since then.

⁵ An account is opened with the first benefit payment in a benefit year.

⁶ A benefit account was exhausted, prior to Nov. 1, 1940, upon payment of benefits for 80 compensable days of unemployment, since then, for 100 compensable days of unemployment.

⁷ Revised.

No. 216.—PERSONS ATTENDING SCHOOL BY SINGLE YEARS OF AGE FROM 5 TO 20, BY SEX: 1910 TO 1940

[Statistics for 1940 are based on attendance at or enrollment in any regular school or college, including night schools, extension schools, or vocational schools, if they were part of the regular school system. No correspondence schools were included. In the 3 prior censuses, the school attendance question was not restricted as to type of school or college. In 1940, the question referred to the period between Mar. 1, and Apr. 1, 1940; in 1930, to the period between Sept. 1, 1929, and Apr. 1, 1930; and in 1920 and 1910, to the period between the preceding Sept. 1 and the census date (Jan. 1)]

² Excluding population of Indian Territory which is not covered by public-school statistics, and also, for 1890, population of Indian reservations. These were not enumerated at censuses prior to 1890.

³ Current expense, capital outlays, and interest.

⁴ Census estimates for July 1 made prior to 1940 census.

⁵ Estimated by Scripps Foundation.

⁷ Not including data for night, summer, part-time, and continuation schools separately reported.

¹ Includes superintendents, principals, and supervisors for States not reporting them separately, but not for all States. These numbers are, therefore, somewhat smaller than those on which average annual salaries are based.

No. 245.—VOCATIONAL COURSES, FEDERALLY AIDED—STUDENTS ENROLLED, BY CLASS, BY STATES AND TERRITORIES AND FOR PUERTO RICO; YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 1942

NOTE.—Institutions Federally aided are reimbursed from Federal funds provided under the act known as "The Smith-Hughes Act," or the "National Vocational Education Act of 1917," and subsequent acts extending the benefits of vocational education to Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, and providing for the further development of vocational education. These acts, administered by the Office of Education provide appropriations for reimbursement in part from Federal funds for expenditures by States and local communities for vocational education.

No. 246.—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION OF DISABLED PERSONS, BY NUMBER AND BY CASES ON ROLL, BY STATES AND FOR HAWAII AND PUERTO RICO: 1930 TO 1942

NOTE.—In accordance with the Civilian Vocational Rehabilitation Act of June 2, 1920, Congress set up a program of cooperation with the States for the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise. By the end of the fiscal year 1940, 48 States, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico had accepted the provisions and begun cooperation with the Federal Government. The figures given relate only to cases aided by Federal funds. The total expenditure in 1942 (fiscal year) comprised: Federal funds, $2,556,969; State and private funds, $2,648,174.

No. 249.—APPORTIONMENT OF CONGRESSIONAL REPRESENTATION, BY STATES, FROM ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION TO 1940

NOTE.—The population for apportionment purposes excluded Indians not taxed and, until 1870, two-fifths of the number of slaves. In 1940, it was held that all Indians are subject to Federal taxation. The apportionment ratios were arbitrarily chosen until 1850. From 1850 to 1900, these ratios were the apportionment population of the U. S. divided by the number of Representatives. From 1910 on, the apportionments were computed from priority lists rather than from ratios. There was no apportionment in 1920. For a discussion of methods of apportionment, see Senate Document No. 304, 76th Congress, 3d session, "A Survey of Methods of Apportionment in Congress," by Edward V. Huntington.

² Nomination of candidates for public office is by the convention method in Connecticut and Rhode Island.

³ No data.

⁴ Democratic primary elections were held only for U. S. Congressmen (in the 3d, 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th congressional districts).

⁸ Primary elections were held only for U. S. Congressmen (in the 6th and 8th congressional districts).

¹ Distribution of proposals by subject prevents sum of items from agreeing with total number of proposals submitted. Likewise, subtotals do not necessarily agree with sum of items. This is due to the fact that a proposal may involve more than 1 subject, and is, therefore, counted more than once.

¹ Where more than 1 proposal was submitted to voters in any 1 city, the total vote for the proposal which received the highest total vote was expressed as a percent of potential voting population and as a percent of registration. Registration figures are those reported by election officials.

² Where more than 1 proposal was approved by voters in any 1 city, the percentage was computed for the proposal receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes.

³ Only 1 proposal was voted upon; therefore, the "largest" is the same as the "smallest" total.

10. NATIONAL GOVERNMENT FINANCES

General note as to bases used in compiling statistics of receipts and expenditures of the United States Government.—Four different bases are used in compiling both the receipts and expenditures of the Government. These bases, in the case of receipts, are the daily Treasury statements (unrevised and revised), warrants issued, and collections reported. The expenditures of the Government are published on the first 3 of these bases and also on the basis of checks issued. Figures in the daily Treasury statements (unrevised) which are on a current cash basis are compiled from the latest daily reports from the Treasury offices or public depositories. Owing to the distance of some of these offices and depositories from the Treasury, reports from them are somewhat delayed in reaching the Treasury, and consequently it is necessary to issue the unrevised Treasury statements before they are received. The figures for actual transactions during a month or year which are calculated to take into account these delayed reports are said to be on a basis of daily Treasury statements (revised). The unrevised figures are the basis of the Budget estimates submitted to Congress by the President.

It is provided by law that warrants shall be issued by the Secretary of the Treasury in acknowledgment of money received, and that warrants must be drawn by the Secretary of the Treasury for all disbursements of money. Some of these warrants for expenditures do not represent actual payments but are merely advances of credit to disbursing officers, who then issue checks in payment of Government obligations. Expenditures on the basis of warrants issued include unexpended balances to the credit of disbursing officers at the end of the year but do not include expenditures made during the year from unexpended balances of the preceding year.

Expenditures on the basis of checks issued (see table 194, 1941 Statistical Abstract) represent most accurately the actual expenditures during any given year. They differ from expenditures shown by daily Treasury statements (revised), because they include checks outstanding at the end of the year and exclude unpaid checks at the beginning of the year.

Government transactions are classified according to the accounts through which they are effected. The three classes of accounts are: General fund accounts, which include the general revenues and from which the operating expenses of the Government, including capital outlays and fixed charges, are paid under appropriations by Congress; special fund accounts, or funds received under special authorizations of law which are earmarked for some specific purpose; and trust fund accounts, representing money received and held in trust for the benefit of individuals or classes of individuals. The latter are not strictly Government moneys and are shown separately in all tables except No. 258. (See headnote of that table.)

All figures for receipts and expenditures include postal surpluses or deficiencies only; postal revenues other than surplus receipts and postal expenditures payable from postal revenues are shown in table 258.

² Based on reports of the Post Office Department. Expenditures include adjusted losses, etc., postal funds, and expenditures from postal balances; they exclude departmental expenditures in Washington, D. C., to the close of the fiscal year 1922, and amounts transferred to the civil-service retirement and disability fund, fiscal years 1921 to 1926; in 1927 to 1941 the 3½ percent salary deductions are included.

⁶ Averages are for entire period though there were no amounts under these items for certain years.

⁷ Years ended Dec. 31, 1801 to 1842; average for 1841-1850 is for the period Jan. 1, 1841, to June 30, 1850.

⁸ Less than $500. ⁹ Average for 1863 to 1865. ¹⁰ Average for 1881 and 1884. ¹¹ One year only, 1895.

¹² After deduction of net appropriations to Federal old-age and survivors insurance trust fund.

¹³ Sales of public lands included with miscellaneous receipts; postal revenues and expenditures not available.

¹⁴ Civil expenditures under War and Navy Departments at Washington are included in "Civil and miscellaneous" prior to 1916, thereafter under the War and Navy Departments, respectively. War Department includes expenditures for rivers and harbors and Panama Canal.

¹⁵ On basis of warrants issued from 1789 to 1930; on basis of checks issued 1931 and subsequent years. Includes only Army and Navy pensions for service prior to World War, and fees of examining surgeons in Pension Bureau, and is exclusive of payments made by the War Risk Insurance Bureau and Veterans' Bureau to veterans of the World War, and salaries under Bureau of Pensions, which are included in civil and miscellaneous expenditures.

¹⁷ On basis of warrants issued prior to 1922. Exclusive of amounts transferred to civil-service retirement and disability fund.

¹⁸ See notes on corresponding periods, p. 257.
¹⁹ See note 6, p. 257. ²⁰ Excludes interest accounts which are included in trust fund expenditures.
²¹ Revised to reflect expenditures under current classifications. ²² Included in miscellaneous.

No. 260.—INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS, BY CHIEF TAX SOURCES: 1863 TO 1943

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of dollars. The figures represent collections by internal revenue officers throughout the country, including deposits by postmasters of amounts received from sale of internal revenue stamps and deposits of internal revenue collected through customs offices, and, therefore, differ from those in tables 257 to 259 which represent the deposits of these collections in the Treasury or depositories during the fiscal year concerned, there being thus an overlapping of time. Certain items, included in the totals in the last column, are shown in detail in the second part of the table.

No. 263.—INCOME TAX RETURNS, INDIVIDUAL, ESTATE, AND TRUST—
SUMMARY: 1913 TO 1941

[All tabulations from Statistics of Income include data for Alaska, District of Columbia, and Hawaii. Statistics are based on returns as filed, unaudited except to insure proper execution. Under the revenue laws, individuals are required to file returns as follows: (1) Single or married, for 1913 through 1916, those with net income of $3,000 or over; (2) single, or married and not living with husband or wife, for 1917 through 1924, $1,000 or over; 1925 through 1931, $1,500 or over; 1932 through 1939, $1,000 or over; for 1940, those with gross income of $800 or over, and for 1941, with $750 or over, regardless of the amount of net income; (3) married and living with husband or wife, filing a joint return, for 1917 through 1923, those with net income of $2,000 or over; 1924, $2,500 or over; 1925 through 1931, $3,500 or over; 1932 through 1939, $2,500 or over; for 1940, those with gross income of $2,000 or over, and for 1941, with $1,500 or over, regardless of the amount of net income; (4) every individual with gross income of $5,000 or over for 1921 through 1939, and as stated above for 1940 and 1941. Data for returns showing no net income, filed in accordance with the latter provision, are not included in statistics shown. Fiduciaries are required to file returns on the same basis as single individuals, except that a return is required for every estate or trust of which any beneficiary is a nonresident alien, and for 1938 through 1941, a return is required for every trust having a net income of $100 or over. Partnership net profit or net loss is reported on the individual returns of copartners according to their shares]

² Credits against tax consist of: (1) for 1923, amount of the 25 percent reduction provided by Revenue Act of 1924, (2) for 1924 through 1931, 25 percent of tax on earned net income, and (3) for 1924 through 1933, 12½ percent of capital net loss from sales of assets held more than 2 years where such loss has not been deducted in arriving at net income. For all years the credits for (1) tax paid at source and (2) taxes paid to foreign countries or possessions of the United States are not included in credits against tax as shown and are not deducted from total tax as shown.

³ Includes war excess-profits tax of $101,250,000 reported on returns of individuals and $103,888,000 on returns of partnerships.

⁴ Total tax, for 1938 and subsequent years, includes in addition to normal tax and surtax, alternative tax on returns with net income: 1938, $278,907,000; 1939, $328,532,000; 1940, $543,299,000; 1940 (prel.), $536,802,000; and 1941 (prel.), $1,067,959,000; defense tax: 1940, $128,350,000; 1940 (prel.), $128,418,000; and 1941 (prel.), $1,142,000 reported on returns with taxable years beginning prior to Jan. 1, 1941; and optional tax for 1941 (prel.), $360,861,000, reported on Form 1040A. (The alternative tax on returns reporting deficit due to net long-term capital loss, which tax amounted to $615,251 for 1938; $300,138 for 1939; $472,953 for 1940, and $2,303,000 for 1941 (prel.), is not included.) See following explanations:

(1) The alternative tax is imposed on returns with net long-term capital gain when such alternative tax is less than the sum of the normal tax and surtax computed on net income including net long-term capital gain; the alternative tax is imposed on returns with net long-term capital loss when such alternative tax is greater than the sum of the normal tax and surtax computed on net income after deducting net long-term capital loss.

(2) Defense tax is 10 percent of the total income tax before deducting any credit, but not in excess of 10 percent of the amount by which the net income exceeds such income tax.

(3) The optional tax is that paid in lieu of normal tax and surtax by individuals electing to file Form 1040A (for gross income of not more than $3,000 entirely from salary, wages, and compensation for personal services, dividends, interest, rents, annuities, and royalties).

⁵ Preliminary figures for 1940 returns filed through June 1941, and for 1941 returns filed through June 1942. Complete figures include additional returns filed to Dec. 31.

¹ Excludes salaries and wages of the individual, his wife, or dependent minors derived from business conducted by the individual.

² Dividends on stock of domestic corporations prior to 1936 and taxable interest on obligations of the United States for all years, received through partnerships and fiduciaries, were reported under their respective source of income. For 1935 through 1937, income of partnerships and fiduciaries includes proportion of net capital gains and losses resulting from sales or exchanges of capital assets through these entities required to be reported under Revenue Acts of 1934 and 1936. For 1938 through 1940 partnership income excludes capital gains; fiduciary income includes capital gains except amounts received through "common trust fund."

³ Net capital gain or loss on sale of capital assets by individuals, estates, and trusts, after certain limitations are applied. For 1935 through 1937, excludes net capital gain or loss on sale of capital assets by partnerships or fiduciaries, which amounts are included in profit (or loss) from partnerships or income from fiduciaries. For 1938 through 1940, short-term net capital gain consists of gain on capital assets held 18 months or less, and long-term net capital gain or loss consists of gain or loss on capital assets held over 18 months (short-term net capital loss is not deductible in current year). For 1939 and 1940, short-term net capital gain is after deduction due to prior year net short-term capital loss.

⁴ Consists of net gain or loss from sale or exchange of property, used in trade or business, of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation.

⁵ On stocks of domestic corporations prior to 1936; includes dividends on stocks of both domestic and foreign corporations subject to normal tax and surtax for 1936 through 1940.

⁶ Excludes amounts reported in business deductions.

⁷ See note 1, table 263.

⁸ Includes defense tax, $128,000,000.

⁹ Includes defense tax, $124,000,000.

¹⁰ Includes defense tax, $4,000,000.

² Excludes interest on partially tax-exempt Government obligations reported on returns with net income under $5,000.

⁵ Excludes (1) interest on partially tax-exempt Government obligations, (2) net gain or loss from sales or exchanges of capital assets received from common trust funds, each of which is reported in its respective source of income, and (3) dividends on share accounts in Federal savings and loan associations which are reported in "Other income."

⁶ Current year business profit or loss. The net operating loss deduction is reported in "Other deductions."

No. 271.—INCOME-TAX RETURNS, CORPORATION—SUMMARY: 1911 TO 1941

[All tabulations from Statistics of Income include data for Alaska, District of Columbia, and Hawaii. Statistics are based on returns as filed, unaudited except to insure proper execution. All corporations are required to file returns except those specifically exempt, such as mutual, fraternal, civic, and charitable organizations not operating for profit. Under the Revenue Act of 1934, the privilege of filing a consolidated return for a group of affiliated corporations was limited to common carriers by railroad and their related leasing and holding companies. The Revenue Act of 1936 extended this privilege to street suburban, and interurban electric railway corporations. These changes result in marked differences between returns for 1934 and subsequent years, and those for 1933 and prior years, in net-income or deficit classification and in size of total assets, as well as in distribution by industries. Tables showing effect on tabulated data of discontinuance of privilege of filing consolidated returns except by railroad corporations will be found in Statistics of Income for 1934, Part 2. In general, corporations are classified industrially on the one business activity which accounts for the largest percentage of total receipts. Therefore, the industrial groups contain data for activities other than that on which classification is based. As a result of the application of the Standard Industrial Classification, the number of major and minor industrial groups for 1938 and subsequent years has been increased over that for 1937 and prior years. Changes in the contents of the groups are listed in Statistics of Income for 1938, Part 2.]

¹ Returns of inactive corporations prior to 1927 are included in those reporting no net income.² For 1922-32, and for 1940 and 1941, net income tabulated is amount before deduction due to net operating loss of prior year. (For amount of such loss allowed as a deduction from net income in computing taxable income for 1927-32 and for 1940, see table 276, p. 269). For 1935 and prior years, net income or deficit is amount reported for income tax computation. For 1936 and later years, net income or deficit is amount reported for (declared value) excess-profits tax computation and includes dividends received on stock of domestic corporations subject to taxation under the effective Federal tax law, and interest received on certain Government obligations subject to excess-profits tax. Beginning 1936, contributions or gifts are deductible in arriving at net income and are limited to 5 percent of net income before such deduction.³ For 1918 and subsequent years, income tax, as tabulated, is the amount before deduction of credit for taxes paid to foreign countries.⁴ War profits and excess profits taxes provided by Revenue Act of 1917 were in effect 1917-22; (declared value) excess-profits tax under the NIRA was in effect for 1933 and subsequent years. For 1940 and 1941, in addition to declared value excess-profits tax, there is an excess profits tax levied under Second Revenue Act of 1940.⁵ Returns showing net income in excess of $5,000 exemption.⁶ Returns showing deficit, or net income not in excess of $5,000.⁷ Not available.⁸ Receipts for fiscal year ending June 30 of following year, as reported by Commissr. of Internal Revenue. Figures for 1911 and 1912 and $10,671,000 of amount for 1913 are excise tax receipts.⁹ Figures for 1915 contain approximately 32,000 returns which properly belong in 1914.¹⁰ For 1936-38, includes surtax on undistributed profits according to provision of Revenue Act of 1936.¹¹ Includes income defense tax.

¹ To improve historical comparability, figures in italics for 1937 and figures for 1938 through 1940 are adjusted by transferring certain minor groups from the classification in which they are tabulated in tables 275 and 277 to the classification in which they were tabulated for 1937 (figures in roman) in this table.

³ "Textile-mill products" include "Clothing and apparel," for years prior to 1936.

¹ To improve historical comparability, figures in italics for 1937 and figures for 1938 through 1940 are adjusted by transferring certain minor groups from the classification in which they are tabulated in tables 275 and 277 to the classification in which they were tabulated for 1937 (figures in roman) in this table.

³ "Metal and its products" includes "Motor vehicles, complete or parts," for years prior to 1936.

² Gross sales, less returns and allowances, where inventories are an income-determining factor. For "Cost of goods sold," see "Compiled deductions."
³ Where inventories are not an income-determining factor. Figures for years prior to 1932 represent gross profits from operations other than trade and manufacturing. For 1927 and 1928, such profits for corporations classified under "Transportation and other public utilities," "Service," "Finance," and "Nature of business not given" were included in "Other receipts."
⁴ For 1927-33 consists of wholly tax-exempt interest on obligations of States, Territories, or political subdivisions thereof, or the District of Columbia; securities issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act or such act as amended; and obligations of the United States or its possessions; for 1934 through 1940 includes in addition to the wholly tax-exempt interest, that which is partially tax-exempt (subject to the declared value excess-profits tax).
⁵ Included in "Other deductions" prior to 1933.
⁶ Beginning 1936 "Dividends from domestic corporations" are taxable income tabulated with "Other receipts."
⁷ These deductions include contributions or gifts (limited to 5 percent of net income before deduction of contributions or gifts).
⁸ Other than income and excess-profits taxes and taxes reported under "Cost of goods sold" and "Cost of operations."
⁹ Compiled receipts less compiled deductions.
¹⁰ See note 2, table 271.
¹¹ Deducted by corporations reporting net income.
¹² In addition to income tax, includes: declared value excess-profits tax for 1933 and subsequent years; surtax on undistributed profits, 1936 through 1938; and for 1940 excess-profits tax under provisions of Second Revenue Act of 1940.
¹³ Excludes dividends of life insurance companies for 1927.
¹⁴ Deficit.

¹ Excludes inactive corporations.² Adjustments are made in tabulating the data as follows: (1) Reserves for depreciation, depletion, amortization, and bad debts, when reported under liabilities are deducted from the corresponding asset account and "Total assets" and "Total liabilities" are decreased by the amount of such reserves, (2) a deficit reported under assets is transferred to liabilities, and "Total assets" and "Total liabilities" are correspondingly decreased, (3) a negative amount reported under assets is transferred to liabilities, and "Total assets" and "Total liabilities" are correspondingly increased.³ Cash in till and deposits in banks.⁴ Less reserve for bad debts. Includes loans and discounts of banks.⁵ For 1930 through 1933, consists of obligations of States, Territories, or political subdivisions thereof, or the District of Columbia; securities issued under the Federal Farm Loan Act or such act as amended; and obligations of the United States or its possessions, the interest on such obligations being wholly tax-exempt; for 1934 through 1940, there are included in addition to the above, those Government obligations the interest on which is partially tax-exempt (subject to declared value excess-profits tax).⁶ For balance sheets in which common and preferred stock are not reported separately, the combined amount is tabulated as "Common stock." For balance sheets with no par stock and not reporting capital stock value, the net worth is tabulated under "Surplus and undivided profits."⁷ Beginning 1937, excludes "Surplus reserves."⁸ Consists of the sum of the positive amounts of "Paid-in or capital surplus," "Earned surplus and undivided profits," and "Surplus reserves." If one or more of these amounts are negative, they are tabulated as "Deficit" and the remaining positive items are tabulated as "Surplus and undivided profits." Prior to 1937 the net amount of "Surplus and undivided profits" or "Deficit" was tabulated from each return.⁹ Consists of negative amounts for "Paid-in or capital surplus" and "Earned surplus and undivided profits."

No. 283.—ESTATE TAX RETURNS, FEDERAL—SUMMARY: 1916 TO 1941

NOTE.—All money figures in thousands of dollars. Under the various revenue acts, returns are required for the estate of: (1) every citizen or resident alien who died (a) prior to February 26, 1926, or in the period June 6, 1932 through August 30, 1935, if gross estate exceeds $50,000; (b) in the period February 26, 1926 through June 5, 1932, if gross estate exceeds $100,000; and (c) on or after August 31, 1935, if gross estate exceeds $40,000; (2) every nonresident alien any part of whose estate is situated in the United States at date of death. Estates of individuals dying on or after June 6, 1932, are subject to two taxes, a basic tax levied under the Revenue Act of 1926 or the Internal Revenue Code or either as amended and an additional tax levied under the Act of 1932 or that Act as amended, or the Internal Revenue Code.

¹ Excludes returns for estates of nonresident citizens who died prior to May 11, 1934.
² Includes returns for estates of nonresident citizens who died prior to May 11, 1934.
³ The net taxable estate for individuals who died after 5 p. m. June 6, 1932, is net estate subject to the additional tax under the Revenue Act of 1932 or that Act as amended, or the Internal Revenue Code. The tax is the net basic tax under the Revenue Act of 1926, or the Internal Revenue Code, or either, as amended, plus the net additional tax under the Revenue Act of 1932 or that Act as amended, or the Internal Revenue Code, and, for 1940 and 1941, includes the defense tax.

¹ Payments of governments which have funded their debts were made prior to date of funding agreements.

³ Differences between principal of funded indebtedness and amounts here stated represent deferred payments provided for in funding agreements, for which "bonds" of respective debtor governments have been or will be delivered to Treasury.

⁴ Increase over amount funded due to exercise of options with respect to payment of interest due on original issue of bonds of debtor governments.

⁵ German Government has been notified that Government of U. S. will look to German Government for discharge of this indebtedness of Government of Austria to Government of U. S.

⁶ Includes additional bonds aggregating $3,489,000 received July 23, 1937, in exchange for bonds aggregating $1,208,000 and annuities aggregating $69,000, payable on Jan. 1, 1933, 1934, and 1935, but postponed as provided by agreements of May 8, 1930, and Sept. 14, 1932.

⁷ U. S. held obligations in principal amount of $290,000, which, together with accrued interest thereon, were canceled on Oct. 6, 1939, pursuant to agreement of Apr. 14, 1938, between U. S. and Republic of Nicaragua, ratified by U. S. Senate on June 13, 1938.

⁸ Does not include payment of $100,000 by Rumanian Government on June 15, 1940, which was made as "a token of its good faith and of its real desire to reach a new agreement covering" Rumania's indebtedness to U. S.

11. STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT FINANCES AND EMPLOYMENT

GENERAL NOTE

Statistics on finances of States, cities, and larger counties presented in this section were procured largely by trained representatives of the Bureau of the Census and by local agents directly from information available in the fiscal offices of the States, cities, and their agencies, with the assistance and cooperation of public officials. Every effort was made to insure completeness and accuracy of data by checking against reports for prior years and by extensive research and investigation.

In order to obtain a maximum of uniformity and comparability in reporting data for various States, statistics were examined, and classified in accordance with standard classifications employed by the Bureau of the Census in presenting governmental statistics. Consequently, statistics as presented in Bureau of the Census reports frequently appear in a manner different from that shown in the records of the governmental unit itself. Definitions of the concepts used by the Bureau of the Census in reporting financial information on government and a description of the methods used in presenting the data are given in the source volumes.

Data on employment and pay rolls are from the Quarterly Survey of State and Local Government Employment, a mail canvass of areas selected to show trends by type of unit and size group. Special studies, such as "Financing Federal, State and Local Government: 1941" and "Retirement Systems for State and Local Government Employees, 1941," are prepared either from the financial and other data collected for the annual reports or from special surveys for obtaining additional information, or by means of a combination of the two.

The Census of Governments, formerly known as the Census of Wealth, Debt, and Taxation, is a decennial canvass of all units of government. Final data from the 1942 Census were not available for this edition of the Abstract.

The term "General government," as used in this section, covers all governmental transactions other than those of public-service enterprises.

¹ Excludes payments from funds received from other public units; includes payments to other public units.

² Includes grants, shared revenues, loans, and payment of debt services; excludes W. P. A. and similar indirect aids.

³ To observe a common basis for reporting all governmental levels, the U. S. Treasury statistics for expenditures were adjusted by the following three additions: (1) $287,000,000 for the Agriculture and Treasury Departments resulting from the showing of total costs instead of net expenditures, (2) $61,000,000 for railroad unemployment insurance, and (3) $711,000,000 for old-age and survivors insurance.

⁴ Total amounts are decreased by $203,000,000, the amount of unspecified Federal and State aid to local governments.

⁵ Excludes payments to other public units; includes payments from funds received from other public units.

⁶ State $3,000,000 and local $9,000,000.

⁷ State $2,000,000 and local $22,000,000.

¹ Refunds to members withdrawing from systems are excluded. The inclusion of lump-sum or nonrecurring payments makes annual benefit payments more than 12 times monthly benefit payments from which lump-sum payments are excluded. Moreover, annual benefits reflect additions to and withdrawals from old systems, as well as creation of new systems, during year.
² Included with municipalities are 37 school districts and 6 special-purpose districts.
³ Included with counties are 2 school districts.

¹ Under orders of the Secretary of the Treasury of Dec. 28, 1933, and Jan. 11 and 15, 1934, all gold coin domestically owned (with minor exceptions) was required to be delivered to the Treasurer of the United States, and under the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 (Jan. 30) withdrawn from circulation and formed into bars. Gold coin ($287,000,000) shown on Treasury records as then outstanding was dropped from statements.

No. 316.—MONEY—STOCK, BY KIND: 1860 TO 1943

NOTE.—Amounts in thousands of dollars. Figures prior to 1890 were revised in 1925 from the best available data, but the older records, especially from 1860 through the early 70's, are not complete and figures for gold and silver for those years are only estimates. In 1927, data were revised to include minor coins beginning 1900 (no satisfactory data available for earlier years) and gold coin and bullion held abroad for Federal Reserve banks and to exclude gold earmarked for foreign account.

¹ The totals involve a duplication to the extent that United States notes, Federal Reserve notes, Federal Reserve bank notes, and national bank notes, all included in full, are in part secured by gold, also included in full. Gold certificates, silver certificates, and Treasury notes of 1890 have been excluded, however, since they are complete duplications of the equal amounts of gold or silver held as security therefor and included in the totals.

² By a proclamation of the President dated Jan. 31, 1934, the weight of the gold dollar was reduced from 25.8 to 15⁵/₁₆ grains of gold, 0.9 fine. The value of gold is therefore based on $35 per fine ounce beginning June 1934; theretofore, it is based on $20.67 per fine ounce.

⁴ Silver bullion in Treasury. Includes silver bullion as follows: June 30, 1934, $1,560,000; June 30, 1935, $313,309,000; June 30, 1936, $708,211,000; June 30, 1937, $835,196,000; June 30, 1938, $1,037,163,000; June 30, 1939, $1,230,586,000; June 30, 1940, $1,353,162,000; June 30, 1941, $1,435,909,000; Dec. 31, 1941, $1,476,106,000; June 30, 1942, $1,505,844,000; Dec. 31, 1942, $1,516,187,000; June 30, 1943, $1,519,746,000.

No. 317.—MONEY IN CIRCULATION, MONEY HELD IN TREASURY AND IN FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM, AND TOTAL STOCK: 1800 TO 1943

NOTE.—All figures except per capita in thousands of dollars. In conformity with revisions in the form of circulation statement in 1922 and 1927, figures for 1915 on have been compiled to include in the holdings of Federal Reserve banks and agents, and, hence, in stock of money, gold bullion and foreign coin held by them and gold coin and bullion held abroad for the account of Federal Reserve banks, and also to include in the holdings of Federal Reserve banks and agents, and, hence, exclude from circulation, all forms of money held by them whether as Reserve against Federal Reserve notes or otherwise. See also headnote, table 316. Per capita figures based on population estimates of the Treasury Department.

¹ Gold and silver certificates and Treasury notes of 1890 are excluded before combining money outside of the Treasury with money in the Treasury in order to avoid duplication, since the gold and silver held in Treasury as security against these currencies are included. See also notes 1 and 2, table 316.

² Both of these items include also reserve against Treasury notes of 1890.

³ See note 1, table 315.

⁵ Gold certificates. This amount is not included in the total since the gold held as security against the gold certificates is included in the column, "In trust against gold and silver certificates."

ALL ACTIVE BANKS

No. 318.—ALL ACTIVE BANKS—PRINCIPAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES, BY CLASS OF BANKS: 1840 TO 1942

NOTE.—Includes banks in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Philippine Islands (except 1942), and beginning with 1935, those in Virgin Islands and with 1938, those in Canal Zone, Guam (except 1942), and American Samoa. Because of the war, data are excluded for banks in Guam and the Philippine Islands for 1942. Data for banks other than national for the earlier years are not as of June 30 and are incomplete, especially through 1885. Figures for mutual savings banks include some stock savings banks for years prior to 1910 and also a few in several more recent years; since 1926 only one is included. Private banks are not included prior to 1890; statistics for private banks, except for 1934 and 1935, cover only banks under State supervision and those voluntarily reporting; for 1934 and 1935, they include also private banks which submitted reports to the Comptroller of the Currency under provisions of the Banking Act of 1933.

¹ Date of reports of member banks; figures for nonmember banks as of nearest available date.

² Exclusive of interbank deposits, with following exceptions: For dates prior to Dec. 30, 1933, member-bank figures include interbank deposits not subject to immediate withdrawal, which aggregated $103,000,000 on that date; nonmember-bank figures prior to June 1940 include interbank deposits to the extent (estimated at $150,000,000 for June 30, 1937, but since reduced to probably a small amount) that they were not reported separately in a few State bank abstracts.

No. 342.—SAVINGS BANKS—NUMBER OF DEPOSITORS AND AMOUNT OF SAVINGS DEPOSITS, CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES: 1820 TO 1910

NOTE.—Data for later years are as of June 30 or about June 30. In earlier years reports were of various dates. Prior to 1900 data include both mutual and stock savings banks; beginning 1900 they are for mutual savings banks only, which in that year had about 90 percent of the savings deposits in all savings banks. For figures for later years and also savings deposits in all classes of banks, see table 343.

² Includes 3 insured nonmember banks in 1934, 22 in 1935, 40 in 1936, 47 in 1937, 47 in 1938, 25 in 1939, 18 in 1940, 3 in 1941, and 6 in 1942, with deposits of $1,912,000, $3,763,000, $10,207,000, $10,156,000, $11,721,000, $6,589,000, $5,341,000, $503,000, and $1,375,000, respectively. Federal deposit insurance became operative Jan. 1, 1934.

³ Includes $10,000,000 which can not be allocated by States.

No. 385.—BANK CLEARINGS FOR LEADING CITIES: 1925 TO 1942

Note.—In millions of dollars. Cities are listed in order of importance according to clearings in 1942. No figures are given for Los Angeles, which ranked eighth in 1929 but has not reported clearings for any subsequent year. Comparability of figures for different years is affected by the tendency toward consolidation of banks, eliminating former clearings between 2 or more banks. Debits to individual account (tables 386) are a better measure of volume of payment. For figures for earlier years for all cities reporting to New York Clearing House Association, 1882 to 1920, and for figures for 146 identical cities, 1920 to 1936, see table 293, Statistical Abstract, 1937.

No. 391.—FIRE LOSSES, TOTAL AND PER CAPITA, CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES: 1876 TO 1942

[Amounts, except per capita, in thousands of dollars. Prior to 1916 figures are as compiled by the New York Journal of Commerce and include losses of $10,000 or over in the principal cities of the United States, adding 15 percent for small and unreported losses. These figures are not comparable with those shown for later years (the 1916 Journal of Commerce figure being $214,531,000 as against $258,378,000) which cover all fires reported to the Actuarial Bureau Committee, adding 25 percent for unreported and uninsured losses prior to 1935 and 30 percent thereafter.]

No. 396.—LIFE INSURANCE WRITTEN AND IN FORCE, BY STATES: 1940 AND 1941

NOTE.—Figures cover business transacted in continental United States, including United States business of Canadian companies. They include data for some small companies which confine their business to the State in which they domicile, and usually to several small cities, which are not included in tables 392 to 395. Further differences between totals in this table and in the preceding tables are due to duplications from reinsurance.

³ Including taxes.

⁴ Figures through 1930 include data for companies which transact life insurance in addition to accident and health insurance. Income and disbursement items include business of accident and health branches only of these life insurance companies, where companies were able to segregate data, while capital, assets, and net surplus include total amounts of these items for such companies, excluding, however, data for a few very large companies for which accident and health business is only a small proportion of the total business. Capital, assets, and net surplus are therefore overstated and in part duplicated in figures for life insurance companies in other tables. Figures for 1933 to 1941 relate to casualty, surety, and miscellaneous insurance companies only.

⁵ Number of companies reporting.

⁶ See note 4.

⁷ Includes stock casualty, surety, and miscellaneous insurance companies, shown separately above, mutual companies, reciprocals, and Lloyds; number of companies and income and disbursement items also include accident and health departments of life insurance companies.

No. 410.—PROFITS AND DIVIDENDS OF INDUSTRIAL CORPORATIONS: 1930 TO 1943

NOTE.—Data for the group of 629 companies, compiled quarterly, are available only beginning 1939; earlier data shown for 488 of these companies and for the group of 152 companies are available only on an annual basis. Annual data include reports for fiscal years ended between July 1 of specified year through June 30 of the following year. To a considerable extent, total profits of the 629 corporations represent very large concerns, as no data are included for companies with assets under $250,000, and there is a very limited representation of companies with assets between $250,000 and $5,000,000. No data are included for some important nondurable goods industries, such as meat packing, sugar refining, and rubber. Net profits are before dividends and after all charges, including depreciation, interest, special reserves charged as expenses, and all taxes. Aggregate dollar dividends are reported quarterly by only a few companies and for most of the companies for which these data are shown, dividends were computed for each class of stock on the basis of dividends per share and number of shares outstanding. (These data have been substituted for data on quarterly profits of 167 industrial companies compiled by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which have been formerly included in the Abstract. For net profits of all corporations as compiled from income-tax returns, see tables 276 and 277, pages 269 and 270.)

No. 411.—CAPITAL ISSUES—SUMMARY, BY CLASSES: 1923 TO 1942

NOTE.—In millions and tenths of millions of dollars. Data cover domestic and foreign issues in the United States. Preferred stocks of no par value and all common stocks are taken at their offering price, other issues at par, except that in the figures for corporate issues for 1917 and 1918 all stocks are included at their market value. Corporate issues for 1917 and 1918 exclude real estate offerings and privileged stock subscriptions included in figures beginning 1919, and issues of less than $100,000. State and municipal issues include bonds issued by States, Territories, and possessions, counties and municipalities, and by school and road districts and other independent governmental bodies.

No. 415.—INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL FAILURES—NUMBER AND LIABILITIES, BY MONTHS: 1939 TO 1943

NOTE.—Liabilities in thousands of dollars. Current liabilities include all accounts and notes payable and all obligations, whether in secured form or not, known to be held by banks, officers, affiliated companies, supplying companies, or the Government. Deferred liabilities (the difference between current, as defined above, and the total) are therefore long-term obligations held by the public.

No. 419.—NET DEBT IN THE UNITED STATES: 1916 TO 1942

[Net public and private debt is a comprehensive estimate of the outstanding indebtedness of final borrowers in the United States rather than a measure of total debt. To obtain the net debt figures estimates of gross or total debt are corrected for debts issued by but held within units having economic coalescence. Four such units are distinguished (a) the Federal Government and its corporations and agencies, (b) combined State and local governments, (c) individual corporate systems, and (d) individual business establishments or persons. This selection of units means that the gross debt estimates are adjusted for (1) debts outstanding against a unit but held within that same unit in sinking, trust, or investment funds, (2) debts of intermediary financial institutions such as banks, insurance companies, and Federal agencies, and (3) for intercorporate debts internal to corporate systems under a single management. Under correction (2) bank deposits and liabilities of life insurance companies to policyholders were excluded and the intergovernmental debts of the United States Government and its corporations and agencies were eliminated by consolidating the Federal accounts. Loans receivable by Federal agencies were also deducted from the gross Federal debt since this debt is intermediary and duplicates private debts arising from these same advances by Federal agencies. The net debt figures give a more significant picture of trends in the debt structure than the crude gross debt estimates. The figures represent, in the main, balances of loans outstanding at the end of calendar years, corrections having been made wherever figures are reported by fiscal years not corresponding to calendar years.]

13. INCOME AND EXPENDITURES

[Data in this section relate to continental United States]

No. 422.—NATIONAL INCOME BY DISTRIBUTIVE SHARES: 1929 TO 1942

National income is the measure of the value of net output of commodities and services produced by private and public enterprises of the economy. It includes economic activities carried on by all producing entities—corporations, partnerships, individual enterprises, and governmental agencies. Value of materials and supplies and of plant and equipment consumed in process of production is deducted from gross value of goods and services produced in order to obtain value of net production. The net product is represented by returns in the form of salaries and wages, net income of business enterprises, interest, and rents and royalties. Corporate savings (positive and negative) represent net profits after deduction of cash dividends and taxes]

No. 423.—NATIONAL INCOME BY INDUSTRIAL DIVISIONS: 1929 TO 1942

[Data on dividends, interest, and corporate savings by industrial divisions for 1934 (omitted here) and for subsequent years are based on a different industrial classification than are the estimates of these items for earlier years because of a change in the Revenue Act of 1934. Special tabulations of the Bureau of Internal Revenue permitted the making of estimates for 1934 on the earlier basis. For specific items in certain industries the variations are substantial, but for total income the changes were small]

No. 424.—INCOME PAYMENTS TO INDIVIDUALS, BY STATES: 1929 TO 1942

[Income payments to individuals comprise (1) salaries and wages net of pay-roll deductions for social insurance, (2) other labor income such as pensions, compensation for injuries, direct and work relief and social insurance benefits, (3) net earnings, before owner's withdrawals, of unincorporated businesses (including farmers), and (4) dividends, interest, and net rents and royalties received by individuals. The total of income payments differs from national income in tables 422 and 423, principally by the exclusion of retained earnings of corporation from the former aggregate and their inclusion in the latter. Other differences relate to the handling of social insurance pay-roll deductions and benefits and such transfer items as direct relief and adjusted-service certificates (the Soldier's Bonus). Estimates of income payments are distributed among the States on a where-received basis; only payments made in the continental United States are included]

No. 425.—WAGE OR SALARY WORKERS (EXCEPT THOSE ON PUBLIC EMERGENCY WORK) IN MARCH 1940, BY WAGE OR SALARY INCOME AND RECEIPT OF OTHER INCOME IN 1939, BY COLOR AND SEX

[Wage or salary income includes all money received in 1939 in compensation for work or services performed as employees, including commissions, tips, piece-rate payments, bonuses, etc., as well as receipts commonly referred to as wages or salaries. The value of income in kind, such as living quarters, meals, clothing, etc., is not included. Persons were classified as with or without other income on the basis of their answers to an inquiry as to whether $50 or more of income was received from sources other than money wages or salaries in 1939. Statistics include persons who were employed as wage or salary workers (except on public emergency work) during the census week, and persons seeking work who were last employed as wage or salary workers. Statistics are based on sample B, see p. 29. Percent not shown where less than 0.1].

No. 428.—FAMILIES BY FAMILY WAGE OR SALARY INCOME AND RECEIPT OF OTHER INCOME IN 1939, BY URBAN AND RURAL AREAS

[Statistics are based on Sample F, see p. 29. For definitions of wage or salary income and other income, see table 425. Family wage or salary income was obtained by combining the wages and salaries reported by all persons 14 years old and over in the family. Families were classified as "without other income" if all members 14 years old and over reported that they had received no other income.]

No. 431.—DISTRIBUTION OF FAMILIES AND SINGLE CONSUMERS BY MONEY INCOME LEVEL: 1942

[Estimates cover all civilian consumers except those living in institutions. Families are defined as economic units of two or more persons sharing a common or pooled income and living under a common roof. Single consumers are defined as men or women maintaining independent living quarters or living as lodgers or servants in private homes, rooming houses, or hotels. The term spending unit is used to cover both groups. Civilian money income includes net money income of all civilians except those living in institutions. It therefore excludes all imputed (nonmoney) items, and all income paid to members of the armed forces. Estimates are on a calendar year basis]

¹ The estimated population used for all spending units was 129,100,000, of which 121,250,000 were in family units and 7,850,000 were single consumers.

² Personal taxes shown here include only individual income taxes, poll taxes, and certain minor personal property taxes. It should be noted that sales taxes, excise taxes, and all indirect taxes on consumption are included under expenditures for goods and services.

³ Savings are defined as the net change in assets and liabilities of the spending unit during the year, exclusive of gains or losses from revaluation of assets.

⁴ Gifts consist only of money contributions to the church, the Red Cross, and other institutions and funds.

No. 433.—CONSUMER INCOMES—DISTRIBUTION OF FAMILIES AND SINGLE INDIVIDUALS AND OF AGGREGATE INCOME RECEIVED, BY INCOME LEVEL:¹ 1935-36

NOTE.—These figures are estimates based primarily on sample data collected in the Study of Consumer Purchases, a Works Progress Administration project conducted by the Bureau of Home Economics and the Bureau of Labor Statistics in cooperation with the National Resources Committee and the Central Statistical Board. Findings of that study were supplemented by income tax statistics and by other sample data on family and individual incomes.

¹ The estimates cover all consumers with the exception of 2,000,000 persons living in institutions or quasi-institutional groups. A family is defined as 2 or more persons sharing a common income and living under a common roof. Single individuals include persons lodging in rooming houses and hotels, living as lodgers or servants in private homes, or maintaining independent living quarters as 1-person families. Income includes the total net money income received during the year by all members of the economic family plus the value of certain items of nonmoney income, such as the occupancy of an owned home and food produced by rural families for their own use. The estimates apply to the 12-month period from July 1935 through June 1936.

No. 434.—CONSUMER EXPENDITURES—AGGREGATE AND AVERAGE OUTLAY OF FAMILIES AND SINGLE INDIVIDUALS FOR CONSUMPTION, GIFTS AND PERSONAL TAXES, AND SAVINGS, BY INCOME LEVEL: 1935-36

NOTE.—These figures are estimates based primarily on sample data collected in the Study of Consumer Purchases (see headnote, table 433), supplemented by data from various other sources. The estimates apply to the 12-month period from July 1935 through June 1936, and cover all families and single individuals in the United States. A family is defined as 2 or more persons sharing a common income and living under a common roof. Single individuals include persons lodging in rooming houses and hotels, living as lodgers or servants in private homes, or maintaining independent living quarters as 1-person families.

⁴ Gifts include gifts made to persons outside the economic family, to churches and other religious organizations, and to welfare agencies. Taxes cover only personal income taxes, poll taxes, and certain minor personal property taxes. Taxes on automobiles and on owned homes, and sales and excise taxes are included in consumption expenditures. Business taxes and taxes on income-producing property were deducted in calculating net income.
⁵ These estimates represent net changes in family and personal assets or liabilities, exclusive of gains or losses from revaluation of assets. At the lower income levels they appear as average net deficits for the year, the surpluses of some families in the income group being more than offset by the deficits of other families.

³ Includes, in addition to goods and services purchased during the year, the imputed value of the nonmoney items mentioned in note 2. All purchases of durable consumer goods, except payments on homes and improvements to homes, are considered current expenditures for the year. Automobile expenditures cover purchase and operating costs for family and personal use only, excluding costs chargeable to business use.

⁴ Figures cover rural families only.

⁵ Gifts include gifts made to persons outside the economic family, to churches and other religious organizations, and to welfare agencies. Taxes cover only personal income taxes, poll taxes, and certain minor personal property taxes. Taxes on automobiles and on owned homes, and sales and excise taxes are included in consumption expenditures. Business taxes and taxes on income-producing property were deducted in calculating net income.

⁶ These estimates represent net changes in family and personal assets or liabilities, exclusive of gains or losses from revaluation of assets. At the lower income levels they appear as average net deficits for the year, the surpluses of some families in the income group being more than offset by the deficits of other families.

14. PRICES

GENERAL NOTE.—The wholesale-price index of the Department of Labor is based on primary market quotations of 784 commodities beginning 1926, 813 beginning January 1938, 863 beginning March 1940, 887 beginning October 1940, and 889 beginning January 1941; a smaller number of commodities was covered in earlier years. The price of each article is weighted by the approximate quantity marketed during a period approximating that covered by the index. Beginning with 1921, in computing indexes for commodity groups, articles falling under more than one of the classifications were included under each classification. For example, articles produced on the farm which reach the consumer practically unchanged in form, such as potatoes, milk, and eggs, were included among both farm products and foods. However, in computing the index for all commodities such articles were counted only once.

The retail-food-cost indexes presented in this section for periods beginning January 1935 are revised indexes based on the distribution of expenditures as shown by the 1934-36 study made by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of expenditures of wage earners' and lower salaried workers' families. Differences in changes in retail-food costs as shown by the revised, as compared with the unrevised, data are due largely to the relatively greater importance of citrus fruits and green vegetables and the lesser importance of cereals, potatoes, and apples in the revised index. The revised indexes are computed from prices of 54 foods prior to March 1943; 61, thereafter. Aggregate costs of these foods in each of 56 cities (51 cities prior to March 1943), weighted to represent total purchases, have been combined for the United States with the use of population weights. In accordance with a recommendation of the Central Statistical Board, Bureau of the Budget, an average of the years 1935-39 is being used as a base in presenting these revised indexes of food costs. Indexes for all periods prior to January 1935 are converted from indexes computed for corresponding periods on the 1923-25 base.

The farm-price index is based on prices paid to producers for 34 major crops and 13 commercial truck crops. Average quotations for the period August 1909-July 1914 are used as a base, and each price series is weighted by the average annual marketings of farmers in the years 1924 to 1929.

The user of index numbers involving prices is reminded that up-grading, undercover price advances, and quality changes are not reflected fully. Such indices are subject to a wider margin of possible error in wartime than in peacetime.

³ Owing to frequent changes in patterns announced by manufacturers, prices of individual articles of furniture are only roughly comparable from year to year and are not shown.

No. 442.—PRICES, WHOLESALE—INDEXES, ALL COMMODITIES AND BY ECONOMIC CLASSES: 1916 TO 1943

NOTE.—Figures in boxes indicate number of quotations. Indexes of the National Bureau of Economic Research for 1916 to 1928 are unweighted geometric means for approximately 490 commodities (converted from a 1913 base to a 1929 base by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce); for subsequent years they are weighted arithmetic means for 680 price series, the weights being based upon the average value of production in 1927 and 1931. For method of computing the Department of Labor index, see general note, p. 398. For Department of Labor publications in which data appear, see source note, table 440.

³ Effective January 1941. In earlier years a smaller number of commodities was included.

⁴ Number of quotations used beginning 1929; see headnote regarding earlier years. The sum of the number of quotations for producers' and consumers' goods and for durable and nondurable goods is greater than the number of all commodities owing to duplication of certain price series in the classifications. For example, identical price quotations on flour are used in both producers' goods and consumers' goods.

⁵ Average, 1929 and 1930.

No. 443.—COST OF GOODS PURCHASED BY WAGE EARNERS AND LOWER-SALARIED WORKERS IN 34 LARGE CITIES COMBINED—INDEXES: 1913 TO 1943

NOTE.—1935-39=100. Figures for food represent 56 cities since March 1943 and a smaller number in earlier years; other figures, 19 cities from 1913 to 1917, 32 cities from 1918 to 1934, 33 cities from 1935 through September 15, 1940, and 34 cities thereafter. Totals from 1913 to 1924 are weighted by relative importance of items as ascertained by country-wide study of family expenditures in 1917-19. Totals from 1930 to date are weighted by relative importance of items as ascertained by a study of family expenditures in 1934-36. Totals for the intervening years, 1925 through 1929, are weighted by an average of the 1917-19 and the 1934-36 expenditure data. Except for 1913, the annual average indexes for items other than food are estimates based on indexes compiled as of particular dates at irregular intervals shown in previous issues of this publication. They represent weighted averages of indexes for each pricing period affecting the year. For example, where goods were priced in June and December, the indexes for December of the previous year were considered in arriving at the average of the year. The annual average food index is based on monthly indexes.

No. 449.—UNIT VALUES, ANNUAL AVERAGE, OF IMPORTANT ARTICLES IMPORTED: 1911 TO 1941

NOTE.—The values are required by law to represent the values of the goods in the foreign markets whence exported to the United States. "Ton" signifies long ton of 2,240 pounds. The averages are obtained by dividing the total value of imports of the specified article by the total quantity, and as in some commodities there may be considerable variations in price between different grades, methods of packing, etc., and as the proportions of the grades, etc., may vary from year to year, the averages in such cases may show the actual price movements only roughly. Data for 1941 are the latest available for publication.

¹ Includes 10,550 connecting lines for which separate reports were not secured; data for such lines, however, were included in reports of operating companies supplying switchboard service.

² Includes data for connecting lines having fewer than 5 telephones per line, as follows: 11,759 lines; 29,000 telephones; and estimated figures for other items as follows: 44,000 miles of single wire; and $1,600,000 investment in equipment.

³ Not reported for systems and lines having less than $5,000 annual income in 1912. For 1917 and 1922, figures represent number of systems and lines reporting central offices; actual number of central offices was probably slightly larger.

⁴ Not reported except for systems and lines with income of $5,000 or more.

⁵ Including assessments of mutual companies, and miscellaneous operating revenues.

⁶ 83,378,000 miles of wire in cable and 6,193,000 not in cable.

⁷ No data.

⁸ No comparable data available.

No. 455.—TELEPHONE SYSTEMS—SUMMARY, CLASS A CARRIERS: 1926 TO 1942

NOTE.—Figures cover Class A telephone carriers which reported for 1942. Class A carriers are those carriers whose average annual operating revenues exceeded $100,000. The gross operating revenues of Class A carriers (excluding intercorporate duplications of the Bell System) reporting in 1937 represented approximately 94 percent of the revenues of all telephone carriers as reported for the Census of Electrical Industries for that year. (See table 450.) The figures include data for carriers consolidated and merged prior to 1942, so far as annual data are available. Intercorporate duplications have not been excluded, but data for 1942 excluding such duplications are shown in italics below.

² The decrease reflected in data shown for the year 1933 is due mainly to the fact that prior to that year the total of wire jointly owned with other companies was included, whereas from 1933 on, only the respondents' portion of jointly owned wire was included.

³ Data for 1926 through 1932 include estimates.

⁴ In comparing figures in this table, consideration should be given to the minor effect of the revisions of the Uniform System of Accounts, effective Jan. 1, 1933, and Jan. 1, 1937, resulting in certain changes in and rearrangements of both the balance sheet and the income statement.

⁵ Excluding intercorporate duplications.

¹ Excluding rural free delivery routes, ocean mail routes, and air mail routes to foreign countries.² Audited postal surplus or deficit which is greater or less than excess of receipts or expenditures by the amount of adjusted losses and contingencies.³ International includes foreign countries on domestic basis. For explanation, see headnote, table 464.⁴ Data are for continental United States and are estimates except in 1923 and beginning with 1926, when figures are accurate calculations. No estimates made from 1914 to 1922, inclusive.⁵ Postage stamps first issued under act of Mar. 3, 1847, and placed on sale at New York July 1, 1847.⁶ From Nov. 1, 1864, when money-order system first went into operation, to June 30, 1865.⁷ From Sept. 1, 1869, to June 30, 1870. International money orders first issued under convention of Oct. 12, 1867.⁸ Gross revenues of department for 1918 and 1919 include $44,500,000 and $71,292,000, respectively, war-tax revenue accruing from increased postage.

No. 464.—POSTAL MONEY-ORDER BUSINESS—SUMMARY: YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 1915 TO 1942

NOTE.—For revenues from money orders, see table 463. For value of orders issued for other years, see table 462. Money orders are exchanged on a domestic basis not only within this country, but with its outlying possessions, Canada, Cuba, and numerous islands and minor countries neighboring the United States. International-basis orders are exchanged between the United States and its outlying possessions, on the one hand, and other than "domestic basis" foreign countries, on the other. In this table, however, "International" includes money orders exchanged between the United States and "domestic basis" foreign countries, and these are not included in "Domestic."

No. 466.—TRANSPORTATION OF DOMESTIC MAELS, BY CLASS OF SERVICE: 1920 TO 1942

NOTE.—Since Nov. 1, 1916, all service on steam railroads is authorized and paid for under the space basis system; formerly, payments were based on a system of quadrennial weighings. Railway mail space units of service vary in size and character and may consist of a car, a section of a car, or a closed pouch carried on a car. Some cars are railway post offices, others are for storage only, about 20 classes of units being distinguished. The "equated unit" represents a calculation of the equivalent of all the different units in terms of a 60-foot car. Annual rate of expenditure (regular authorizations) represents estimated cost for transporting normal mail traffic over regular routes only, based on contracts outstanding at the end of each fiscal year. "Annual cost" includes emergency and side and transfer service. Average rates are based on "regular authorizations."

[Data in this section relate to continental United States]

No. 470.—ENERGY FROM MINERAL FUELS AND WATER POWER—ANNUAL SUPPLY, BY SOURCE: 1871 TO 1942

NOTE.—The figures, except coal equivalent, represent the equivalent of the heating power of the classes of fuel in trillions of British thermal units. Data represent production, except those for oil imports, and take no account of exports, imports, or changes in stocks.

¹ Fuel equivalent is calculated from kilowatt-hours of power produced wherever available, as is true of all public-utility plants since 1919. Otherwise fuel equivalent is calculated from reported horsepower of installed water wheels. Prior to 1890 data were unsatisfactory, but estimates are included in total.

³ Based on amount of coal displaced by gas, as estimated by gas companies.

⁴ Figures not available for publication.

No. 472.—ELECTRIC ENERGY—PRODUCTION, BY TYPE OF PRIME MOVER: 1920 TO 1942

NOTE.—In thousands of kilowatt-hours. Figures for 1942 in this table and those in table 471 and in tables 473 to 477 are based on the operation of 4,064 power plants, owned by 1,678 concerns, generating electric energy for sale. The production and capacity of the following types of plants are included: Privately owned electric utilities, mining and manufacturing (exclusive of plants of those concerns whose sales were less than 10,000 kilowatt hours per month), railways and railroads, municipal electric utilities, Bureau of Reclamation, other Federal projects, cooperatives, power districts, State projects, and publicly owned noncentral stations.

No. 479.—ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER INDUSTRY—SUMMARY: 1902 TO 1937

NOTE.—Figures cover all establishments engaged either in the generation and distribution of electric energy, or the distribution or transmission of electric energy, to public or private consumers. Statistics do not include establishments which consume all current generated, such as manufacturing and mining companies, railroads, railways, hotels, and other enterprises not in the nature of public utilities, unless a portion of their generated output is sold commercially. Plants operated by the Federal Government or by States were not included unless energy was sold commercially.

³ Comprises 1,112 stations operated by steam; 1,283 by internal-combustion; 1,426 by water; and 206 composite (stations having more than 1 type of prime mover).

⁴ Comprises generated output and energy purchased and received from other sources. Since the energy "Received from other sources" was, in a large part, purchased from other electric light and power companies, a considerable duplication is involved, as such energy would also be included in the "Generated."

⁵ Includes "Estimated value of free service."

⁶ Number on June 30.

⁷ Reported by commercial establishments only. No data for municipal establishments.

⁸ Not comparable with figures for other years since amount includes only salaries and wages chargeable to electric operating service.

⁹ Includes value of plant and equipment, $902,000,000, owned by companies engaged in the operation of electric light and power plants and other public utilities, not distributed among the several utilities.

¹⁰ In addition, hogged fuel, sawmill, and other waste were reported.

No. 483.—WATER POWER, DEVELOPED AND POTENTIAL: 1921 TO 1941

NOTE.—In thousands of horsepower. Data for developed water power cover capacity of actual installation of water wheels and turbines in plants of 100 horsepower or more. Potential power figures are 1936 revised estimates showing the 24-hour horsepower available 90 percent of the time and 50 percent of the time at an over-all efficiency of 70 percent at all developed and undeveloped sites. Data for potential power are not directly comparable with those for developed power, because developed power is usually given in terms of the capacity of installed water wheels or turbines, which may be several times the potential power available 90 percent of the time. Probably with complete development of the water-power resources of the whole country the installed capacity would amount to 80,000,000 horsepower or more.

No. 484.—RURAL ROADS—MILEAGE, FUNDS AVAILABLE, AND DISBURSEMENTS, 1921 TO 1942, AND CONSTRUCTION UNDER FEDERAL AID, 1930 TO 1942

NOTE.—Figures cover continental United States, except as noted, and refer to calendar years for most States. Mileage data included for 1921 and 1926 were obtained from county records; figures for 1929 and 1930 include some estimates. Rural roads include roads outside of incorporated areas and certain of the more populous unincorporated areas. No data available for county and township roads after 1930, except for those under State control.

⁶ Excludes funds transferred. ⁷ Excludes balance on hand at beginning of year; not reported in 1921.

⁹ Includes an undetermined amount of municipal street mileage on State highway systems or connecting these systems. Beginning with 1935 such mileage is included, however, for only a few States.

Figures prior to 1935 also include mileage of secondary road systems under State control for a number of States. ¹⁰ Primary systems only. See also note 9. ¹¹ Not yet available.

¹² Includes funds transferred to or from local units. Data for the District of Columbia are not included prior to 1940.

¹³ Not comparable with figures for prior years. Last 2 sentences of headnote, table 486, apply to these figures.

¹⁴ Includes data for Hawaii and beginning 1937 for Puerto Rico.

¹ Includes secondary rural roads under State control with a total of 196,536 miles for the 18 States noted. Also includes 29,828 miles of urban extensions, 3,072 miles of which are not under State control.

² See note 1, table 464.

³ Includes original and reconstructed surfacing. In addition to mileage here shown, surfacing on secondary rural roads under State control totaled 6,789 miles in 1940 and 8,101 miles in 1941, and surfacing on urban extensions of State systems totaled 1,003 miles in 1940 and 1,102 miles in 1941.

⁴ Includes new location.

⁵ Mileage for urban extensions under State control included with rural roads, as segregation by types was not available, except for 180 miles of urban extensions existing in Georgia at the end of 1941.

No. 486.—DISBURSEMENTS OF STATE-HIGHWAY FUNDS, BY STATES: 1921 TO 1942

NOTE.—Figures include disbursements, whether from current revenues or the proceeds of loans, for construction, maintenance, interest and principal payments on highway bonds, transfers to local units, and miscellaneous disbursements. Data beginning 1934 cover calendar years, while figures for earlier years for many States represent fiscal years. Beginning with 1940, figures are not comparable with those for prior years as they include data for certain State income applicable to highways, namely, proceeds of highway-user imposts allotted, without passing through the State highway departments, by the State treasurer, for (1) county and other local roads and streets and for (2) nonhighway purposes. These data were not included in prior years.

No. 493.—MOTOR-VEHICLE REGISTRATIONS (COMBINED FIGURES FOR PASSENGER CARS AND MOTOR TRUCKS), BY STATES: 1915 TO 1942

[Registration periods ending not earlier than Nov. 30 and not later than Jan. 31 are considered as calendar-year periods. Net numbers, excluding reregistrations and nonresident registrations, are given, so far as possible. Totals in this table do not include, in most cases, those official cars which are exempt (or partially exempt) from paying regular registration fees to the States. Registrations for trailers are included in figures for some States. Tractor trucks and tractors for highway use are included beginning with 1925.]

18. TRANSPORTATION, AIR AND LAND—STEAM AND ELECTRIC RAILWAYS, EXPRESS COMPANIES, MOTOR BUSES, AND CIVIL AERONAUTICS

[Data in this section relate to continental United States unless otherwise stated]

GENERAL NOTE.—The term "steam railways" as used in this section includes electrified divisions operated by such carriers. The total steam railroad mileage of the United States comprises: (a) Regular interstate carriers (and their nonoperating subsidiaries) reporting to the Interstate Commerce Commission, (b) switching and terminal railroads, also reporting to the Commission; and (c) private railroads (defined by the Commission as "circular" because they report on brief circulars and as "unofficial"). Except in certain mileage data the circular and unofficial companies are not included in any of the statistics. The switching and terminal roads were formerly included with operating railways, but are now separated, and data for them do not appear in most of the tables.

Nonoperating subsidiaries include proprietary companies, which are covered by the reports of operating carriers, and lessor companies which have no traffic and whose reports appear only in statistics of capitalization, dividends, and investment.

Operating railways are divided into three classes, according to the amount of their annual operating revenues, class I, having more than $1,000,000 of such revenue; class II, from $100,000 to $1,000,000; and class III, less than $100,000. During recent years more detailed reports are required from class I carriers than from smaller companies. The basis of the figures in each table is indicated by notes. Omission of class II and class III railroads affects very little the comparability of statistics with those of earlier years as regards most items, since the bulk of the business is done by class I.

The Interstate Commerce Commission divides railroads geographically into three districts and eight subsidiary regions. Each railroad is treated as a unit and placed wholly in some one district or region. Broadly speaking, the eastern district includes territory east of Chicago and north of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers; southern district, territory east of the Mississippi River and south of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers; and western district, the remainder of the country.

Class I companies make monthly reports from which data are compiled currently and published in a series of monthly statements. The yearly totals from these reports become available earlier than the sometimes slightly corrected totals from the final annual reports. The latest figures in these tables are in many cases from the monthly reports.

No. 500.—STEAM RAILWAYS—MILEAGE OWNED AND MILEAGE OPERATED: 1890 to 1942

NOTE.—Beginning with 1908 switching and terminal roads are omitted (they operate about 2,300 miles of main tracks). The first and second columns cover all railways, including "circular" and "unofficial" lines; the last 5 columns omit "circular" and "unofficial" lines. Mileage owned excludes all duplication and covers continental United States only. Mileage operated includes some duplication under trackage rights and some mileage in Canada operated by United States companies.

No. 504.—STEAM RAILWAYS (ALL REPORTING COMPANIES)—EQUIPMENT IN SERVICE: 1924 TO 1941

NOTE.—“All reporting companies” include switching and terminal but not circular and unofficial lines. Data for tractive effort and capacity of cars exclude switching roads, also smaller roads during recent years; they would not be materially different if all carriers were included. The large number of cars owned by private car lines is not included.

¹ Data exclude switching and terminal companies beginning 1910. Class III roads are excluded in 1913. Exclusion of the latter has practically no effect on the comparability of the figures. Information for 1915 is incomplete, as 20 of the larger railways did not report, and is not shown.

² Calculated for all classes of employees, including those not paid on an hourly basis.

³ Data cover Federal reports, reports of companies not under Federal control, and corporate reports.

No. 509.—STEAM RAILWAYS (ALL REPORTING COMPANIES)—CAPITALIZATION:
1890 TO 1941

NOTE.—All amounts except "per mile of road" in millions of dollars. Switching and terminal companies excluded beginning with 1910; their total capitalization in 1941 was $798,262,007. Figures include both operating and nonoperating railways. The gross figures include considerable amounts of securities held by the companies issuing them as well as larger amounts held by other railway companies.

No. 510.—STEAM RAILWAYS—STOCK OUTSTANDING, DIVIDENDS, AND INTEREST:
1891 TO 1941

NOTE.—Data relate to years ending June 30 prior to 1916 and to calendar years thereafter. Nonoperating as well as operating roads are included. Switching and terminal roads are excluded beginning with 1908. Dividend figures throughout cover all classes of roads, but interest figure for 1913 excludes the unimportant class III roads. The amount of stock shown in the first column is exclusive of stock held by the issuing company, but includes that held by other railway companies.

¹ Prior to 1925 figures include investment of leased lines and exclude investment of proprietary companies not rendering annual reports. Beginning with 1925, the investment in road and equipment of proprietary companies is included as follows: 1925, $480,216,000; 1926, $831,574,000; 1927, $919,095,000; 1928, $1,013,752,000; 1929, $1,051,469,000; 1930, $1,095,631,000; 1931, $1,114,637,000; 1932, $1,121,945,000; 1933, $1,096,264,000; 1934, $890,581,000; 1935, $861,716,000; 1936, $861,696,000; 1937, $848,173,000; 1938, $840,033,000; 1939, $853,848,000; 1940, $809,391,000; 1941, $818,060,000. No allowance is made for cash and material and supplies, and no deduction is made for depreciation.

³ Figures not comparable on account of Federal control accounting requirements.

⁴ Does not include returns for class II and class III companies.

No. 513.—STEAM-RAILWAY FREIGHT SERVICE—TRAIN MILES, CAR MILES,
TONNAGE AND RELATED AVERAGES: 1891 TO 1942

NOTE.—Figures prior to 1916 relate to years ended June 30, thereafter to calendar years. Switching and terminal roads excluded beginning with 1908, except as noted. The tonnage "per loaded car" for "All roads" is based on revenue tonnage only; and for "Class I roads" on revenue and nonrevenue tonnage. Tons are of 2,000 pounds.
